SAVOY AND NICE.

In reply to the request addressed by Switzerland to the Powers who signed the Treaty of Vienna, Russia, England, Austria and Prussia have pronounced themselves in favor of the immediate assembling of a Congress.

The question to be submitted to the Congress is:

"Is it in the interest of Europe that the road of the Simlon, which, according to Article 80 of the Final Act of Vienna, is to be possessed by the King of Sardinia, should be ceded to France, who, by this road, could penetrate into the very heart of Switzerland?"

It is asserted that three Northern Courts have agreed to occupy themselves with the demands of Switzerland simply in the usual diplomatic way, because the great Powers, by assembling in a Congress to consider the claims of Switzerland, would tacitly and implicitly recognize the legality of the annexation of Savoy to France. Therefore they intend to abstain from taking part in a Congress or Conference, the object of which would be the settlement of the question of the annexation.

The Paris journals publish a telegram, dated Chambery, March 31, according to which the election of Deputies in the Provinces claimed by Switzerland has resulted in the return of five partisans of France and one of Switzerland.

THE ATTITUDE OF ENGLAND.

In the House of Commons on the 3d inst.,

Lord John Russell brought up and laid upon the table further correspondence relating to the affairs of Italy. The noble lord said: In laying these papers upon the table, I wish to state shortly and generally their contents, and also to explain what is the present state of affairs, as far as I can do so consistently with my public duty. [Hear, hear.] We have thought it right to lay before Parliament the correspondence with M. Thouvenel, and in answer to a dispatch which has already appeared in the public papers. That correspondence closes with a dispatch from M. Thouvenel. We have replied on our part that we intend to keep the question of the neutralized parts of Savoy separate from the general question of the annexation of that province. [Hear.] There are likewise among this correspondence papers from Switzerland, containing an appeal to the Great Powers who signed the Treaty of Vienna on behalf of the neutrality of Switzerland, and a request that those Powers will meet in conference upon the subject. We have expressed no objection to going into conference, if that should be thought the best mode of dealing with the question. The papers also include a copy of the Treaty of Turin, which has been communicated both by Lord Cowley and Sir James Hudson. In the second article of that treaty it is stated that it will be for the Emperor of the French to come to an understanding with the other Powers with respect to the neutralized portions of Savoy. [Hear, hear.] We conclude, therefore, that there will be a serious examination of this important question, that it will be discussed with reason on all sides; and we hope that such propositions may be made as will be satisfactory to Switzerland, and will meet the views of the Powers of Europe generally. [Hear, hear.]

THE PROTEST OF AUSTRIA.

Count Rechberg has communicated to M. Steiger, Chargé d'Affaires of Switzerland, the definitive reply of Austria to the protest against the annexation of Savoy, addressed by the Federal Council to the great Powers.

In reference to the annexation of Savoy, Austria declares that, after having ascertained the views of the other great Powers, she could not abandon the passive and reserved attitude which her real interests demand in that affair.

As regards the neutrality of Switzerland and the neutralized districts of Chablais and Faucigny, Austria declares her readiness to join her good offices to those of the other great Powers, for the fulfillment of the legitimate wishes of Switzerland, the more because the circular note of M. Thouvenel, of the 13th ult. promised beforehand to respect the guarantees granted to Switzerland by the treaties of 1815.

ANOTHER SWISS PROTEST.

A second protest had been presented by the Swiss Minister in Paris against the decree of annexation, so far as it may affect the neutralized provinces. It is as follows:

Paris, March 28.

Monsieur le Ministre: The Government of the Swiss Confederation having been informed of the stipulations of the treaty by which His Majesty the King of Sardinia assents, with the condition of the sanction of the Chambers, to the union of Savoy and the arrondissement of Nice to France, as signed at Turin on the 24th, and published in the Moniteur Universel the 25th of this month, regrets to be compelled to take further steps with the Emperor's Government to protect the interests of Swiss neutrality.

The object of this treaty is evidently to unite all the provinces of Savoy to France, and, consequently, those which are comprised in the neutrality of the Helvetic Confederation. But the present state of things, such as established by the stipulations of the treaties of 1815 cannot and ought not to be changed except with the previous consent of the Powers of Europe, and of Switzerland, which is most particularly interested in it.

The Government of the Emperor cannot deny that, where rights and interests of the nature of those at present under consideration are in question, the cession by one Power to another of a neutralized territory is equivalent to an essential change affecting the very foundation of the relations in question, and that the annexation of a territory guaranteed in the interest of the neutrality of another country bears quite a different character from that of the territory of States which are not placed in this exceptional character. Any execution of the above-mentioned treaty, so far as it may affect the neutralized provinces, would be regarded by my Government as contrary to the stipulations which have an international character.

The Federal Council is placed, therefore, in such a position as to be compelled to protest against any execution of this treaty as regards the neutralized provinces. It protests most particularly, while demanding the maintenance of the status quo, against all voting on the annexation, against the taking possession, either in a military or civil character, of these provinces, until such time as an understanding shall have been come to between the guaranteeing Powers and with Switzerland.

The Federal Council will demand a meeting of the representatives of the Powers who have guaranteed the neutrality of the three provinces to Switzerland; and it reserves to itself, as the representative of the country most interested, and in conformity with the recognized principles of European international law, to assert before them the rights and interests of Switzerland.

The Federal Council trusts that the Imperial Government will admit the justice of the claims which have been set forth—particularly as, in the second article of the treaty of the 24th of March, France binds herself to come to an understanding on this subject both with the Powers represented at the Congress of Vienna and with the Helvetic Confederation.

It is, therefore, but a natural and necessary consequence of this stipulation to refrain from any measure of which the object would be to execute the treaty as far as it affects the neutralized provinces previous to this understanding having been effected.

It is with this hope, and with full confidence in the sentiments of justice of the Government of the Emperor, that the undersigned has the honor to be, &c.,

KERN.

REVOLUTIONARY ATTEMPT ON THE SWISS FRONTIER.

To the Editor of the London Times:

Sir: As the events which occurred in this city yesterday may possibly be misrepresented in other quarters, and made to assume a character which, in the present critical state of the relations of Switzerland with France, could not but be highly prejudicial to the interests of the former country, I trust you will permit me, as an eye-witness, to give an account of what actually did take place. It would, indeed, be most unjust to the community of Geneva if the impression were allowed to prevail that the rash and unjustifiable act of a few violent and misguided persons had been countenanced or encouraged by any section of the population whatever.

It seems that at 4 o'clock yesterday morning some fifty or sixty persons, about half of whom were armed, succeeded in evading the vigilance of the police, embarked on board one of the lake steamers, and induced the captain, whose complicity in the affair has yet to be determined, to convey them to Thonon, the chief town of Chablais, with the avowed intention of exciting the population of that province to a demonstration in favor of the Swiss cause. Before midday the news of this escapade had spread all over the town, and the greatest excitement prevailed. The streets were crowded with animated groups, denouncing in most violent terms an attempt so futile and, at the same time, so evidently prejudicial to their cause that it was broadly asserted those who had taken part in it were the paid agents of a neighboring country. Even the authorities found themselves compromised by the negligence of the police, in allowing the steamer to slip away; and the Council of State hastened to disavow and condemn the proceeding in the following notice, which was posted over the town:

The Council of State to its Fellow-Citizens:

Beloved Fellow-Citizens: The Council of State has learned that fifty men, bearing arms, left the Grand Quay to-night for the shore of Savoy. The Government of Geneva protests against a violation, as imprudent as it is blamable, of the duties which Swiss neutrality and our well-known sympathy for the cause of Savoy impose upon us. An examination has already been commenced, and measures have been taken to reach those who incited this movement, and to check its grievous consequences.

The Council of State reckon on the confidence and support of its fellow-citizens, and will not fail of its duty in the serious difficulties which encompass the Republic.

In the name of the Council of State,

ADOLPHE FONTANEL,

Geneva, March 30, 1860. Vice-President.

The Savoyard Committee, whose acts have always hitherto been marked by the greatest good sense and moderation, issued simultaneously the annexed declaration:

The people of Geneva, in popular Convention assembled, March 30, at 5 o'clock, at the Electoral Hall, declares that it solemnly disavows every attempt which may have been made against a neighboring country.

The people of Geneva, faithful to the alliance with its confederates, declares that it trusts absolutely to the decisions of the Federal Assembly. It is ready for every sacrifice that the common country may demand of it, and it rises in concert as much to defend the rights which Switzerland asserts at this time, as to check the men who, yielding to grievous provocations, have served a foreign cause, throwing doubt on Swiss loyalty. It demands of the Federal Council the immediate dispatch of a delegate to Paris to disavow, in the name of the Canton of Geneva, and of the Confederation, every attempt which may have a tendency to take the Savoy question from the sphere of international negotiation, and from the energetic and honorable course which has been followed hitherto.

Meantime, prompt measures were taken for the arrest of the culprits. These were facilitated by the opportune arrival of Col. Ziegler, who has just been appointed by the Federal Government to the command of the Genevese troops. Two companies of Chasseurs were embarked on board a steamer, and proceeded in quest of M. Perrier, the organizer of the expedition, and his comrades. The excitement had by this time reached so great a pitch that it was deemed advisable to call a public meeting, and at 5 o'clock in the afternoon about 5,000 persons assembled in the Electoral Buildings to hear the explanations of the authorities.

The following resolution was then put and carried unanimously:

The report is in circulation that a company of men set out this morning from Geneva for Thonon, under the pretext of assisting Savoy. Such an attempt would expose to risk both Savoy and Switzerland, if it depended on such misguided men to put in peril the sacred cause of our liberty and of Helvetian independence. We protest against the conduct of a small number of individuals, of whom we do not know enough to openly repudiate their acts. L. MARÉCHAL, President.

F. Bruel, Secretary.

Throughout the whole of the proceedings the vast assembly seemed animated by the single desire of manifesting, in the most decided and unequivocal manner, their disapprobation of the act of M. Perrier and his followers, and they had an opportunity of showing this more forcibly a few moments after the meeting dispersed, when the steamer containing the prisoners who had been captured on their return voyage arrived. I saw these men as they were marched into the Hotel de Ville, and with the exception of M. Perrier himself, who wore a coat and hat, a more disreputable collection of gamins could not be picked out of the streets of Geneva. The greater part of them were lads who looked excessively alarmed at the unexpected turn affairs had taken, while M. Perrier himself, who in his capacity of demagogue appealed to the populace to rescue him, was answered by shouts of "A l'eau," and followed by the hootings and jibes of the excited mob. It is said that the peaceable inhabitants of Thonon and Evian, the towns at which the expedition landed, are utterly ignorant up to this moment that the unarmed passengers who visited them yesterday and consumed an unusual quantity of champagne in sundry cafes were swaggering revolutionists. It seems that, so far from venturing to rouse the popular feeling by acts of violence against the partisans of France, they actually left the muskets with which they had furnished themselves on board the steamer, and after a somewhat unsatisfactory picnic returned, re infectâ, to pass the night in prison, and undergo a severe penalty at the hands of the authorities. For it will not be forgotten by their judges that this enterprise, although it has terminated in a manner bordering on the ludicrous, might, had it been conducted by men of greater courage and determination, have led to consequences most disastrous to the cause of Switzerland.

Meantime, it is not to be regretted that the people and Government of Geneva should have had this opportunity of proving to the world their respect for international rights which still exist, and their determination to remain steadily faithful to the Federal authority, and to those principles of loyalty which have ever characterized the policy of Switzerland.

Yours obedient, LAURENCE OLIPHANT.

Geneva, March 31.

P. S.—The trial of Perrier and his comrades is now taking place, and I am informed that Perrier has recently returned from Paris, where he has been resident for some time. It is worthy of note that the gang who accompanied him are men of so low a class that they are disavowed by every section of politicians here.

THE FRENCH OCCUPATION OF NICE.

The President of the National Committee at Nice has forwarded the following telegram to Mr. Reuter:

Nice, Sunday, April 1—8 P. M.

To-day the entry of the French troops took place here. The attitude of the population was cold. This evening disturbances have been suppressed (ce soir conflits comprimés.)

The following, which appears in the Moniteur, represents the matter differently:

Nice, Sunday Evening.

Two battalions of the Second French Regiment of the Line have arrived here, and met with an enthusiastic reception by the population, who went to meet the troops, and strewed flowers on their passage. All the houses were decorated with tri-colored flags.

GREAT BRITAIN.

A dispatch dated at Hertford, March 31, says: "This afternoon a warrant was granted to apprehend Thomas Sayers and John C. Heenan, in order that they might be bound over to keep the peace. It is understood that the warrant would be at once executed, and the parties required to find sureties to a heavy amount, as the magistrates are determined to prevent, if possible, the fight from coming off in Hertfordshire."

The great University Club Race came off on Saturday, March 31, with all its customary éclat. After a very severe contest Cambridge won.

In the House of Commons March 31, the Income Tax bill passed, after some explanation on the part of the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The Stamp Duties bill was read a third time and passed. The House shortly after adjourned.

In the House of Lords April 2, the Stamp Duties bill and the Income Tax bill were read a third time and passed.

In the House of Commons, April 2, on the motion of Lord J. Russell, that upon Thursdays after Easter, and until Witsuntide, Government orders of the day have precedence of notices of motion.

Sir G. Grey moved an amendment, to add to the motion the words, "And that notices of motion have precedence of orders on Fridays." After some discussion it was carried by 150 to 126. Some further discussion ensued, and the House again divided upon the original motion as amended, which was carried by 142 to 117. In reply to Mr. Hennessy, Lord J. Russell said:

"The King of Sardinia has not taken any new title; but I have no hesitation in saying that we have advised Her Majesty to consider the new parts of his dominions as forming part of the kingdom of Sardinia. The honorable gentleman probably knows that as soon as the Austrian troops left Bologna the Papal authorities left it likewise, and that as soon as the Grand Duke of Tuscany left Florence the grand ducal authorities left also. At Modena the same thing occurred. At Parma the Grand Duchess showed more courage and determination, but still she was obliged to leave her dominions. These States have resolved on annexation with the kingdom of Sardinia. If the honorable gentleman wishes to go further and inquire into the causes which induced the people of those States to abandon their former sovereigns, he will have to make a motion on the subject." [Hear, hear.]

The Odin and the Encounter are supposed to have passed the Cape, on their way to Singapore, without touching. The Sphinx, the Havre and the Hardy sailed from the Cape on the 19th of February, and the Centaur and Cockchafer on the 5th February, for Singapore, on their way to China.

A fatal accident occurred on the 1st inst., from the capsizing of a boat which was leaving the Great Eastern, and the foreman of the carpenters who were at work on board was unfortunately drowned. There were five or six other persons in the boat, but they were saved—the unfortunate carpenter being the only person drowned.

FRANCE.

The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "Public opinion in the financial and commercial world is greatly agitated by alternate hope and fear, in consequence of the uncertainty which prevails with respect to the future position of the country. The Government has made extraordinary efforts to restore confidence, but without success. Every commercial man admits the importance of Lord John Russell's last speech on the annexation of Savoy and Nice to France."

The search made at the residence of M. Louis Veuillot had resulted in the seizure of papers which have been placed in the hands of justice. The statement that M. Veuillot had been arrested is untrue.

M. Laity has been sent on an extraordinary mission to Savoy.

The Moniteur publishes a decree, giving a second warning to the Ami de la Religion for an article on the Abbé Sisson, which contained a formal attack against the Concordat.

The Moniteur also announces the presentation of the Budget of 1861 to the Corps Législatif. The receipts are estimated at 1,845,000 francs, and the expenses at 1,844,000,000 francs.

The Moniteur says: "The Government, under existing circumstances, considers it to be its duty to recall the following articles of the Concordat, viz.: That no bull, brief, rescript, mandate, provision, or other document from the Court of Rome, even regarding private persons, can be received, published, printed, or otherwise put into execution, without the authorization of the Government."

It is expected that the French expedition will arrive in China in April, and begin the campaign at once.

Since the conclusion of the Treaty of Commerce with England, agents of London firms have been visiting our vineyards to purchase wines and brandies. In Provence and Languedoc alone, purchases already exceed the sum of 20,000,000f., and at Cognac 15,000 hectolitres of brandies have been bought.

Accounts from the agricultural districts are not favorable.

The Paris flour market was firm last week.

Tuesday, April 3—3 30 P. M.

The Bourse has been dull, and prices variable. Rentes opened at 69f. 40c., and closed at 69f. 50c., or nearly a quarter per cent. higher than yesterday.

FRANCE AND BELGIUM.

The following is a copy of a dispatch addressed by the French Government to its diplomatic agents abroad, in order to reassure the Powers as to the intentions of France in respect of Belgium and the left bank of the Rhine:

Paris, March 19, 1860.

Monsieur—In the dispatch which you have done me the honor to write me, you announce that you have forwarded to —— the communication of the Emperor's Government, under date of the 13th of this month, relative to Savoy and the County of Nice, and you add that the principal Secretary of State of —— reserves to himself the taking advice of the Council before making known to us the answer of the —— Government. In the meanwhile, I think it desirable to resume with you the discussion of a point which I merely indicated in my previous correspondence, and to insist especially on an objection which was brought forward in the discussions to which the question gave rise.

Analogies, in fact, are alleged, and these are a starting point for distrust. But do these analogies rest on facts, and does there truly exist a relation between our position with regard to the Alps and our situation on the Rhine? Without doubt, the treaties of 1815 had constituted in the north a state of things not without resemblance and connexion with that which still exists at this day on the side of the Alps. The kingdom of the Low Countries had been created with a view similar to that with which the territorial limits of Sardinia had been settled. Like Sardinia, it had the custody of positions which permitted it to deliver up the approaches and entrances of our territory to foreign armies.

After a duration of fifteen years the arrangements have been greatly modified, with the concurrence of the great powers themselves. Belgium has been formed, and its neutrality, acknowledged by Europe, has covered from that time all that part of our frontier which was exactly the most exposed, and for which France might feel the most reasonable anxiety.

In a word, whatever of a menacing nature for us, in the north, was presented by the treaties of 1815 has been made mere matter of history by the conference of London. We have no longer on that side any guarantee to demand, and our plan of defence, supported by our most important strong places, shelters us completely from dangers analogous to those of which we should have more than ever to take account at another point, if Piedmont, with its new proportions, remained in possession of territories which give access to the very heart of the Empire. On the Rhine the peril has disappeared, while it has increased in the Alps.

Thus the situations the similarity of which it is attempted to show, present no point of resemblance, and the potent considerations which oblige us to claim the annexation of Savoy are without any possible application to the state of things in the east and in the north of France. This combination will complete that which Europe itself has adopted, by effacing the last trace of stipulations manifestly conceived in a spirit of distrust and aggressiveness towards us; and far from finding therein a source of disquietude, Germany will only have occasion to see in it a new condition of the stability and duration of the peace. THOUVENEL.

ITALY.

PROTEST OF AUSTRIA AGAINST PIEDMONTESE ANNEXATION.

A dispatch from Vienna, under date of March 31, says:

The Austrian Cabinet has resolved to protest solemnly against the annexation of Tuscany, Parma, and Modena to Piedmont. A note to this effect, dated the 24th inst., has been directly addressed to the Cabinet of Turin.

In this note Austria first establishes, by historical and legal considerations developed at great length, her positive and incontestable right to oppose an act which, in despoiling legitimate Princes of the States guaranteed to them by European treaties, would also destroy the rights of succession and reversion which these same treaties secure to the House of Hapsburg with respect to the said States.

Austria then proceeds to demonstrate that Sardinia has participated in the engagements contracted by France, who, in consideration of the treaty of 1735, has guaranteed the possession of Tuscany to the House of Lorraine, in order to indemnify this dynasty for the cession of her ancestral heritage.

The note of Austria further recalls that, by virtue of the treaty concluded in 1735 by the mediation of George II. King of England, and countersigned by him in his quality of the House of Este, the right of succession in the Modenese States was conferred, in case of the extinction of the male line, upon the third son of the Emperor Francis and Maria Theresa, whom it was designed to unite to the granddaughter of the Duke of Modena.

With respect to the Duchy of Parma and Piacenza, the treaty of the 10th of June, 1817, concluded between Austria, France, Great Britain, Prussia, Russia and Sardinia, explicitly confirms, in favor of Austria, the rights of reversion stipulated by the treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle, dated the 20th of May, 1815. These rights of reversion have received a fresh sanction by the treaty of Florence, concluded on the 28th of November, 1844, between the Courts of Lucca, Modena, Tuscany, Sardinia and Austria.

Thus, then, the King of Sardinia, in acceding the annexation of the Italian Duchies, openly violates not only the public treaties of 1815, but also the treaties which he has signed as a direct contracting party with Austria.

Such a violation is so much the more flagrant from having been accomplished upon the morrow after the peace of Villafranca and Zurich, of which the essential condition was the restoration of the legitimate Princes.

Induced by all these motives, Austria protests in the most peremptory manner against this most illegal annexation made by the King of Sardinia, and appeals to the conscience of all Europe on the subject.

To this end, at the same time that this protest is forwarded to Turin, a copy will be furnished to all the foreign Cabinets, to whom also a circular note is addressed by Austria, in which it is said "that Austria, in confining herself at the present time to protesting against the said annexation, hopes that Europe will recognize in this proceeding a most convincing proof of her moderation and of her desire to maintain the peace of the world."

A telegram from Turin, dated April 3, says:

The protest of Austria against the annexation of Central Italy to Piedmont has been delivered to Count Cavour by the Count Brassier de St. Simon, the Russian Minister at Turin. Count Cavour has announced to Count Brassier de St. Simon that the answer of Sardinia will be forwarded through the Russian Embassy at Vienna.

The Grand Duke of Tuscany, who resides at Dresden, has addressed a protest, dated March 24, to all the Courts of Europe against the annexation of his States to Piedmont.

OPENING OF THE SARDINIAN CHAMBERS.

THE KING'S SPEECH.

Turin, Monday, April 2.

The Sardinian Chambers were opened to-day.

Signori Senatori, Signori Deputati:

The last time I opened Parliament, amid the troubles of Italy and the dangers of the State, faith in Divine justice encouraged me to augur well of our destiny.

In a very short time an invasion was repulsed. Lombardy was freed by glorious deeds of heroism, and Central Italy became free by the marvelous virtue of its inhabitants, and thus, to-day, the representatives of the rights and the hopes of the nation are assembled around me.

For such a benefit we are indebted to a magnanimous ally, to the valor of his and our soldiers, to the assistance of volunteers, and to the persevering concord of the people. We ascribe the merit of it to God, as without superhuman aid such memorable enterprises cannot be accomplished.

The gratitude of present and future generations is due to France for the welfare of Italy, and for consolidating the Union of the two nations, who have some community in origin, principle and destiny.

It was necessary to make some sacrifice, and I have made that which was dearest to my heart.

Reserving the vote of the people and the approbation of Parliament, and reserving also in regard to Switzerland the guarantee of her international rights, I have concluded a treaty for the reunion of Savoy and the surrounding territory of Nice with France.

We have still many difficulties to overcome; but, assisted by public opinion and by the love of my people, I shall never permit any one to offend or forget any right or liberty.

Firm, like my ancestors, in the Catholic religion and in the respect due to the supreme chief of that religion, I shall, if the ecclesiastical authority makes use of spiritual arms for temporal interests, in safe conscience and in the traditions of my worthy ancestors find strength to maintain entire the civil liberty and authority for which I am only indebted to God and to my people.

The provinces of the Æmilia have been arranged as in former times; but with Tuscany, who has her own laws and her own rules, a special temporal provision was necessary.

The short time since, and the rapidity of the event have impeded the preparation of the laws which are necessary to assist and strengthen the new estate. For the first period of legislation you will only have to discuss the most urgent measures, and my Ministers will prepare with due deliberation the projects upon which you will have to deliberate for the second period.

Based on the statute of the country, the political, military and financial unity, and the uniformity of the civil and penal laws, the progressive administrative liberty of the provinces and communes will renew in the Italian people that splendid and vigorous existence which, at the time of another form of civilization and of other territorial arrangements of Europe, was the fruit of the municipal autonomy which is to-day opposed to the constitution of strong States and to the genius of the nation.

Signori Senatori, Signori Deputati:

In entering upon the new order of things, and without regarding the old political parties in any other way than remembering the services rendered by the common cause, we call for a noble coöperation and the expression of every sincere opinion, in order to obtain our principal object—the welfare of the people and the greatness of the country, which is no longer the Italy of the Romans nor that of the Middle Ages. It must no longer be left a field open to foreign ambition, but it must, on the contrary, be the Italy of the Italians.

AFFAIRS AT ROME.

The Giornale di Roma publishes a letter of Gen. Goyon, declaring that several journals have given a very inaccurate account of the proceedings of the 19th of March. He says he cannot admit, as has been pretended, that the French officers brought about the release of the persons arrested by the Pontifical gendarmes. The General also protests against this supposition as incompatible with discipline, and concludes by saying, "We are all conscious of our duty, and the object of our mission is to assist the Pope to the best of our power."

NAPLES.

The rumors concerning an approaching Ministerial modification have ceased.

The propaganda in favor of annexation to Sardinia is becoming more daring. Copies of Mr. Elliot's dispatches are widely distributed. About 30 prisoners, among whom was Signor Gatti, have passed through the street Toledo, and have been transported to the island of Capri, where they are banished. A Capuan monk has been prosecuted at the Criminal Court for his preaching, which had been denounced as being of a seditious character.

The Oesterreichische Zeitung states, from a reliable source, that the Neapolitan army will not enter the States of the Church.

The King has granted several commercial concessions to the inhabitants of Sicily, and has decreed the construction of a net-work of public roads in the three Calabrian provinces.

SPAIN.

Private letters from Madrid announce that both the Queen and the public are equally dissatisfied with the peace, and indignant against O'Donnell; that the feeling is so strong that the Ministers determined to resign; that their determination was communicated to O'Donnell, who has also tendered his resignation; and that Her Majesty has refused to accept it until they shall have rendered an account to the Cortes of the whole proceeding. It is added that the greatest anger is manifested at Madrid against the Ministers, at the result of this ill-advised war.

PORTUGAL.

The Cortes, by 123 against 12 votes, have granted to M. Salamanca the privilege of constructing the new Portuguese Railroad.

TURKEY.

Kiamil Bey left Constantinople on the 3d, for Galatz to receive the Duke of Brabant, heir apparent of the Belgian Crown, who has just set out upon an Oriental tour.

Brazil and the River Plate.

RETURN OF THE EMPEROR TO RIO—REJOICINGS—THE COFFEE MARKET—NEW GOVERNMENT OF THE ARGENTINE CONFEDERATION—SETTLEMENT OF THE ANGLO-PARAGUAYAN DIFFICULTY.

By way of Southampton, we receive dates from Rio de Janeiro to March 10, and from Buenos Ayres to Feb. 27.

The U. S. sloop-of-war Dolphin was at Bahia.

The Emperor and Empress returned from their visit to the Provinces of the North on the 11th of February. Their reception was a very enthusiastic one, and the principal streets of the city, ornamented with palm trees, banners and superb triumphal arches, had a most festive and beautiful effect. The day of the arrival of the Imperial voyagers will long be remembered in Rio Janeiro.

Since the departure of last mail a limited business had been done in Coffee, on account of the firmness of dealers, and in part to the inferior quality of the Coffee brought to market. The sales of February reach only 70,000 bags, viz.: For Europe, 37,000 bags; United States, 30,000; sundry ports, 3,000.

From the River Plate we learn that Dr. Derqui, of San Juan notoriety, had been elected President, and Gen. T. E. Pedemera Vice-President of the Argentine Confederation. No Ministry had been formed when the mail left. It was thought that the result of the Presidential election would be that Buenos Ayres would unite with the other thirteen Provinces.

At Montevideo, Don Bernardo P. Berro was elected President. A new light-house had been established at Punta del Este. The light had been extinguished near Maldorado and Lobos Islands.

At Paraguay the news was, that Constatt having been liberated, the Tacuan war-steamer had been allowed by the English cruisers to leave Buenos Ayres.

FROM THE SOUTH PACIFIC.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARIEL.

Death of the American Minister at Guatemala.

LATER FROM SOUTH AMERICA.

The steamship Ariel arrived at this port, yesterday morning, from Aspinwall, bringing advices from the Isthmus to April 10, and later news South America.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Death of the United States Minister Resident to Guatemala—An American Diplomatist turning Monk—Salvador—Nicaragua—Costa Rica.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Panama, Tuesday, April 10, 1860.

The Panama Railroad Company's fine steamship Guatemala, J. M. Dow, Esq., Commander, arrived at this port, from Central American ports, on the 6th instant, with a valuable cargo of coffee, indigo and hides.

Hon. Beverly L. Clark, of Kentucky, United States Minister Resident to Guatemala and Honduras, who has been suffering several months from diabetes, died on the 17th March. His funeral ceremonies were conducted with great pomp by the Catholic Clergy, and of course most of the Government officers and foreign diplomatic agents assisted in the rites. Mr. Clark's wife and family came passengers on the Guatemala, and leave for home to-day. The report is generally credited in Guatemala that Mr. Clark was absolved by the Church from his marriage vows two days before his death, that he might join the Order of the Franciscan Monks. Mr. Clark made a public profession of Catholicism in the City of Guatemala on the 14th of December last, and was baptised by the Bishop of Nicaragua, and took the baptismal name of Augustin. His remains were deposited in the pantheon of the Church of San Francisco. Mr. Clark is the third United States Minister who has died in Guatemala within four years—Messrs. Malin and Venable having preceded him to the tomb.

Mr. Wyke, British Minister to Central America, had left in the war-ship Alert for Panama, and will go to England before he takes the Mexican mission.

Guatemala has commenced the culture of cotton. This year she will ship 500 bales of 250 pounds each.

SALVADOR.

Dates are to the 29th March. President Barrios was increasing his military force to such an extent that it was very difficult to find laborers to till the ground—at least, the difficulty had been enhanced from this cause. The people begin to say that he will pattern after Carrera, of Guetamala, and make himself Dictator.

The cultivation of sugar and other products has much increased since the opening of steam trade with Panama—and could labor be had, Salvador would be the most prosperous of the Central American States. The indigo crop this year, it is estimated, will amount to 10,000 to 12,000 ceroons of 150 pounds each. Two ships were loading at Libertad with sugar for Europe.

NICARAGUA.

From Managua we have dates to 27th March. The only news of importance is that Congress had approved the British treaty.

The Levant was at Realejo.

COSTA RICA.

This late State, under its Provisional President, is quiet at present. The election for Deputies to Congress will take place in May. That body will meet immediately after the election, when the Deputies will elect a President. It is supposed the present incumbent, Dr. Jose Maria Montealegre, will be the successful candidate.

Ex-President Mora, of Costa Rica, has bought an estate in Salvador, and taken up his residence there.

THE MAIL STEAMERS AND THE EXPRESS BUSINESS.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Aspinwall, Tuesday, April 10.

The flag-ship Lancaster, and the war-steamers Wyoming and Saranac are at Panama. The Levant is at Realejo. The Cyane is on her way to San Francisco from Panama, to go into dock. The St. Mary's is on the Mexican coast. The flag-ship Roanoke, of the home squadron, is at Aspinwall, being fitted up to take the Japanese Commission to the United States. Also in port, the frigate Sabine and the supply-ship Relief. The St. Louis is at San Juan del Norte.

The Ariel, Capt. Minor, which left here for New-York, March 21st, touching at Havana, arrived back here on the morning of the 9th, making the round trip in eighteen days and a half. Pretty lively business! The Ariel brought out a large amount of express freight for Messrs. Wells, Fargo & Co., for San Francisco, which went last night from Panama on the Cortez. This firm appears to be doing a large business in these latitudes. The promptness with which they make good all losses and damage to goods, entitle them to much consideration from the business public.

SOUTH AMERICA.

Affairs in Ecuador—Castilla Resuming Authority in Peru—The Death of Capt. Lambert—Later from Bolivia and Chili.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Panama, Tuesday, April 10, 1860.

The British Mail steamer arrived at Panama on the 6th inst., with dates from Valparaiso to March 15, and from Callao and Lima to March 27. There is only one day later from Ecuador than the news brought by the United States corvette Wyoming, viz.: to the 22d ultimo. Matters remained quiet for the present in Ecuador; the two contending parties, headed, the one by Moreno and the other by Franco, not being able on account of the rains to molest each other till June or July. In the meantime, if Franco is not assisted by President Castilla of Peru, he will have to quit the country. Gen. Urbina, who was the virtual President under Robles, left Callao, ostensibly for Ecuador, on the 27th. His presence on the soil of Ecuador will add to the complications of that unhappy country.

PERU.

President Castilla has resumed the Presidential chair, filled by Dr. Mar during his absence in Ecuador, and issued a proclamation, bragging of his exploits in that country, in which nobody was killed and the same number wounded, and concludes by threatening to undertake an equally brilliant campaign against Bolivia. I wrote you in my last that his Ministers had refused their assent to a war on Bolivia.

The investigation as to the death of Capt. Lambert, of H. B. Majesty's ship Vixen, clearly indicates that he was murdered which no one ever doubted, although the Commission to take evidence undertake to make it appear that he committed suicide. The Commission took the same course when the Chilian Minister was murdered a few months since.

The Comercio of Lima is very savage against the New-York Times for its editorial in relation to Peruvian outrages on Americans and against their property. It thinks the principal complaint of France and the United States against Peru is that the latter owns rich beds of guano, and the former wish to rob her of them.

The French have just had another row in Callao. A boat's crew from the French Admiral's vessel was taking water near the Mole, when the crew of a Peruvian man-of-war thrust their boat-hooks into the French boat. A fight ensued, in which some of the French sailors got black eyes. Admiral Bonard demanded that the Peruvians should be punished; but this demand not being complied with, he threatened to take the men out of the Peruvian vessel and punish them himself—upon which they were sent to prison for thirty days.

Freights from the Chincha Islands to the United States, $15; to Europe, £3@£3 2s.

BOLIVIA.

Dates from La Paz are to the 17th of March. President Linares still kept up a large military force, on account of the threatened war of Peru against him. The country is quiet, and President Linares appears to be firmly seated, and to have the good will of the influential and peaceable portion of his people. Bolivia, which has now no national debt, and has always faithfully fulfilled her obligations with foreign creditors, is now in need of money, to enable her President to carry out some important reforms, and the Government was expecting a favorable response to her Commissioners, who have been sent to the United States to negotiate for $1,000,000, with the custom dues of the port of Cobiza as collateral security.

Ex-President Echenique, of Peru, since the failure of his last attempt to revolutionize Arequipa, has returned to his residence at Caracollas, in Bolivia.

CHILI.

From Chili there is but little of importance. The Government troops had severely chastised the Indians of Arauco in several encounters, until they had plead for peace. Four chiefs, whose tribes had submitted, had arrived at Santiago to negotiate a treaty with the Government, and are willing to aid it in bringing to terms the few refractory tribes that are yet ill-disposed.

Señor Urmeneta, Minister of the Interior, has resigned, and his place has been temporarily filled by the Minister of Justice, Señor Soto. Señor Garcia, Minister of War, has also tendered his resignation, but it has not yet been accepted.

Business is improving rapidly, now that the country is quiet. The receipts of duties at the Custom-house for the first quarter of 1859 were $900,000—more than double those of the corresponding time in 1859.

Trade had been pretty active the past fortnight. Flour is worth $3 38@$3 50 per quintal, six months. Barley, $3 50@$3 80 the fanega, cash. No Carolina Rice in first hands. An arrival of lumber from Oregon of 200,000 feet, sold at $30. Good assortments of American wanted. Copper in bars, $20 50 cash. Silver, $10 62½ per marc. Saltpetre, $2 31¼. Freights to England, £3 10s.@£3 15s.; to United States, $16.

ADDITIONAL FROM CHILI.

GENERAL, MISCELLANEOUS AND PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

Chili, Tuesday, March 13, 1860.

Yesterday's Mercurio announces that Mr. M. Palma, who has been the first editor of that journal during the past twelve months, has voluntarily separated himself from it. The cause of this movement is not stated. From certain allusions, however, in his farewell article, it may be guessed that political questions are at the bottom of it. Recent articles have asked for a degree of gentleness and forgiveness of the past, which the President will not think practicable.

A rumor has prevailed that the Minister of War and Marine, General Garcia, has resigned his portfolio. It is also stated that Mr. Urmeneta, Minister of Interior and Foreign Affairs, has vacated his post. No reasons are published in either case. Nor at present can I vouch for the veracity of either report.

Mr. Joseph Gray has been recognized as Mexican Consul for the port of Valparaiso.

The number of the Annals of the University for December has just appeared. It contains, under the head of "Zoology," descriptions of certain new species of fish and insects; then follows an article on "Meteorology," another on "Medecine," showing the virtues of a native plant, another on "Electricity as produced by friction," another on "Geology," and finally one on the "Southern Geography of the Country."

From the South intelligence is received of another Malon marauding inroad of the Indians, who burnt fields of grain and killed some of the settlers. They came during a dense fog. They were pursued, beaten, and a "sufficient number" killed, which I presume means that they got off scot-free.

From the lower frontier near the coast the news is better: that the Indians there were treating for peace and ready to make any terms with Col. Barbosa, who has proved too many for them. Some Chilians have been captured, seven in all, in arms against their countrymen, among the Indians. They were tried by court-martial and at once executed.

Mr. William Wheelright is here, recently arrived from the United States. The Mercurio states that this indefatigable advocate of improvements has almost as many in hand as ever. First, that he proposes to construct reservoirs in all the ravines to husband the supply of water; next, to construct a fountain in the municipal square, and, lastly, to carry forward the gigantic scheme of a railway communication with Mendoza, and thence with Buenos Ayres. Wheelright ought to be the Emperor of all South America!

Gen. O'Higgins was famed in the annals of the revolution against Spain, and more especially for his gallant defence of Rancagua against overpowering odds in 1814. His son has recently visited this country. In Rancagua a ball was given in his honor; and it is proposed to rear an equestrian statue to his father there.

A year ago a Lloyd's office of underwriters was formed here. A question has recently arisen between this Company and Cross & Co., regarding a vessel insured against total loss. It was the English ship Salvadora, bound to California. She arrived there in a condition so damaged that $12,000 were needed for repairs. Surveyors pronounced that sum more than she would be worth when repaired. Thereupon, she was sold for $3,222. Lloyd's refused to pay the policy, contending it was not a case of total loss. The case was submitted for arbitration to the Valparaiso Chamber of Commerce. The decision is in favor of the party insured, the Chamber declaring that it is a case of total loss when an article, though existing, is still completely or in the greater part unserviceable on account of damages sustained. This award is given by Messrs. J. Pini, M. E. Sarratea and E. Davidson.

Don Ambrosio Montt is reported as having been appointed first officer in the department of Foreign Affairs. He has recently returned from Europe. He has also taken charge of the Government paper, the Araucano, as editor in chief.

Hon. J. Bigler has recently gone South on a visit to Talcahuano.

William W. Evans, Esq., civil engineer, is reported as having tendered his resignation as chief engineer on the Southern Railway, which runs from Santiago towards Talca. It is constructed as far as Rancagua.

Some idea may be formed of the circulation of books in this city from the last catalogue of one of our bookstores, which enumerates three thousand different works on the shelves.

California begins to compete in grain with the products of Chili, in the Peruvian market. A merchant who has heretofore bought largely in Talcahuano for Callao, has suspended his purchases, having accepted the offer of Gibbs & Co. to place wheat in Peru from California at the rate of $2 the quintal, (hundred weight.) The export of Chili to Peru has amounted to 600,000 quintals per annum.

Luis Ovalle, who made himself Intendente of Aconcagua during the outbreak a year ago, has been sentenced to be shot. This will be commuted into imprisonment, no doubt.

From Buenos Ayres we are informed that Dr. Derqui has been chosen President of the Confederation.

The silver mines of Copiapo have not done well of late. The commercial condition of that city was unpromising. Some failures had occurred already. Three or four mines were doing passably well. The rest were hardly paying expenses. The Good Hope, in Tres Puntas, is spoken of as "the richest in the province."

In that same city the ravages of the croup have been most fatal among children. As many as 40 or 50 deaths were reported in a week.

A late action is reported with the Indians near Nacimiento; 3,000 against 200 Chilians. The paper says the skirmish lasted several hours; that 3,000 shots were fired by the Government troops, when ammunition began to give out as reinforcements arrived. The amount of damage caused by all this firing, to the Indians fired at, seems to indicate a great aim not to hurt them; only "20 were killed, and a considerable number wounded."

The Chili Insurance Company has declared a dividend of $25 per share for the year ended Dec. 31, 1859. The prospects of the Company are good.

Loring & Co. advertise 4,000 gallons sperm oil for sale, on board the bark Cachelot.

Another house offers 200,000 feet Puget Sound pine lumber on sale. Thus the Pacific coasts are forwarding their supplies to these markets. Quite an extensive trade in lumber and ship timber is carried on with Oregon and British America from this coast.

In Santiago there are 453 private carriages paying tax, and 118 public hacks; 348 two-wheeled vehicles, private, and 82 for public service.

Out of the unemployed funds received from the late English loan, $2,000,000 have been invested in loans to individuals. $200,000 have thus been placed at interest, at 8 per cent. per annum, by the Government, in February just past.

Mr. Joshua Waddington has sent to England orders for a fountain, to be placed in the new Plaza del Orden, in Valparaiso.

As for public peace, we are keeping it just now. All is quiet, and seems to promise to continue so for a time.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

Will of Nathaniel Gilman.

CONTROVERSY CONCERNING DOMICIL—WILL OF NATHANIEL GILMAN.

The will in this case, now offered for probate, disposes of a property estimated to be worth nearly a million of dollars, mostly situate in this City, but partly in Maine, where decedent formerly resided. About twenty years ago the testator removed to this City, and commenced operations in the leather and hide business, in which, at the time of his death, he was largely engaged. He died in January last, having made a will devising the bulk of his property to his children and others, and not bequeathing to his widow an amount equal to the one-third part allowed to her by the laws of Maine. She therefore contests the will, basing her claim upon the allegation that her late husband was, at the time of his death, and always had been, a resident of the State of Maine, and there domiciled.

It was shown that the testator had a residence both in this City, where he resided during the Winter, and in Waterville, Maine, where he resided in Summer, and to establish the fact of domicil and citizenship, the contestant proved that in 1856, her husband voted for Mr. Buchanan in Maine, having sworn in his vote. The widow, by her Counsel, contends that the laws of Maine should control the proceedings under and upon the will, and that the Surrogate of New-York has no jurisdiction. The contest is likely to be one of great duration and vigor. Wm. Fullerton and Raymond & Knox for Executors. James M. Smith, Jr., & Co., and Moores, Ex-U. S. S., of Waterville, Maine, for widow. Alex. W. Bradford for children.

Second Trial of Karples.

OYER AND TERMINER.

The indictment upon which the defendant, Henry Karples, is now being tried in this Court, charges him with larceny and embezzlement of twenty barrels of flour on the 28th of June last from his employers, Hecker & Bro. It will be remembered that in January last the prisoner was tried upon an indictment in the General Sessions charging him with the larceny and embezzlement of twenty barrels of flour from the same premises on the 27th of June, 1859. He was then defended by A. Oakey Hall and Edmon Blankman, and found not guilty. After the perpetration of the alleged offence Karples fled to Canada, from whence he was extradited under the provisions of the Ashburton Treaty.

The present trial commenced on Monday, and at the opening of the Court, Mr. Edmon Blankman, who appears for the prisoner, interposed two pleas to the indictment, one of autrefois aquit, (a former acquittal,) and the usual one of not guilty. Mr. Blankman moved that the Court proceed to try the defendant upon each plea separately. This the Court declined to do, but swore the jury to try the pleas jointly, to which the prisoner's counsel excepted. Claiming the affirmative, Mr. Blankman opened the case for his client upon the above plea of autrefois aquit, and proceeded to call his witnesses. The case as to this plea closed, when Mr. John T. Doyle, for the People, opened the case upon the plea of not guilty. The testimony upon this trial is similar to that given on the previous one. The case is still on, and will doubtless consume the balance of the week.

Application for Attachment Against the Treasurer of a Railroad Company.

QUESTION OF JURISDICTION.

Thorn vs. The Old Forge Coal Company.—In this action judgment was obtained against the Old Forge Coal Company, and proceedings supplementary to execution were instituted to compel the Treasurer of the Delaware and Lackawana Railroad Company to pay the judgment—it appearing that this Corporation was indebted to the Coal Company on a contract for the delivery of coal. The order was served on A. J. Odell, as Treasurer of the Company; and counsel, in opposing the motion, contended that the Corporation was not properly in Court—first, because the order was addressed to the Treasurer, and not to the Corporation; secondly, because there was no way provided by law for getting a foreign Corporation into Court, except upon the commencement of an action; thirdly, that the Treasurer had no right to disburse moneys of the Company, without being authorized to do so by the Board of Directors, who were not subject to the jurisdiction of the Court. Counsel, however, expressed a willingness to pay the money into Court, inasmuch as it was claimed by two parties. The matter was heard before Justice BONNEY, at Chambers of the Supreme Court. Decision reserved.

Postponement of the E. A. Johnson Trial.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—BEFORE JUDGE HALL.

The United States vs. Albert Hicks.—The trial of the issue of jurisdiction on this case did not take place yesterday as expected. Judge HALL, after consultation with counsel for the prosecution and for the defence, said that the question of the jurisdiction of this Court over the case was so important a one, especially as the case was a capital one, that it seemed to him desirable, after examining the question and conferring with Judge BETTS, that it should be disposed of before two Judges, in order that there might be, if desired, a certificate of division of opinion between them, that the matter might thus be carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Mr. Hunt, the Assistant District-Attorney, said that under that intimation he should not move the case at present.

It will not, therefore, be called up till Judge NELSON can be here, and the time of his arrival is uncertain.

General Sessions.

TRIALS FOR FORGERY AND RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.

This Court was occupied yesterday till a late hour. Charles W. Brown was tried on an indictment for forgery in the second degree, in attempting to pass counterfeit $5 bills on the Merrimack Bank, Massachusetts. The evidence was inconclusive, failing to show beyond a rational doubt that the defendant was aware of the spurious character of the bills. He was accordingly acquitted.

Henry Martin was indicted also for forgery, in the same degree, in attempting to pass counterfeit bills on the Bank of Chemung, New-York. He pleaded guilty to forgery in the fourth degree, and was sentenced to the State Prison by the Recorder for two years.

Wm. Cooper was indicted on a charge of fraudulently obtaining a signature to a promissory note, with intent to injure and defraud Daniel Quinn. Acquitted.

Ulrich Mark, residing at No. 22 Greenwich-street, was tried on a charge of receiving about $70 worth of tobacco and some segars, which had been stolen from the manufactory of Mr. David Schwartz, of No. 238 Second-street, by two of his apprentices. The offence was committed in July of last year. Mark was yesterday convicted, and remanded for sentence.

It is probable that to-day will be the last day of Term, and that the officers of the Court, for the first time for many months, will be enabled to enjoy a little relaxation.

Decisions.

We understand from good authority that the First Church in Bangor, Me., of which Dr. Pomeroy has long been a member, after a careful and anxious investigation of his case, through a period of nearly four months, have recently communicated to him the assurance of their candid and entire forgiveness—declaring him entitled to all the rights and privileges of a member in good and regular standing—and affectionately commending him to the sympathy and confidence and fellowship of the Churches of Christ throughout the world. The final action was with entire unanimity.

WEDNESDAY, April 18—P. M.

There was less speculative excitement on the Stock Exchange to-day, but a pretty active business again on both the Bond and Share lists. The widest fluctuations, compared with yesterday's prices, were on Harlem and Hudson Shares, which close 1 ⅌ cent. lower, and on Reading, which went up 1 ⅌ cent. A comparatively steady market was had for New-York Central, most of the sales at 79½ ⅌ cent., and that price closing 79½@⅝, much the same as yesterday afternoon. The adjournment of the Legislature appears to have imparted a steadier tone to that and other stocks influenced by it; so that the heavy Bull sales of Monday and Tuesday at 80 ⅌ cent. are met without causing material temporary depression. The rejoicing seems very general, not only on the Stock Exchange, but among classes of business men down town, that the Legislature has broken up, while the outcry against the free (if not corrupt) disposal of the valuable franchises of the new City Railways, while attempting to levy unjust contributions, without an equivalent, upon the great carriers for our Western trade, is equally general. The Western Shares close firm, but without decided activity, on most descriptions. Galena, 63⅝; Rock Island, 63½@⅝; Toledo, 28½@⅝; Michigan Southern, old Stock 12, and Guaranteed, 23@23¼. Michigan Centrals and Illinois Centrals are exceptions, being somewhat weakened by the reported destruction of part of their common dépôt at Chicago; the extent of the damage being left for the present to mere surmise. Pacific Mail shares were scarcely so strong as yesterday, closing 104¾@105 ⅌ cent. Panama bonds steady, 133½ ⅌ cent. Delaware and Lackawanna and Delaware and Hudson both weaker, while the demand for Reading, connected with the same trade, took quite a fresh turn at the Second Board, the price reaching 42½ cash. The General Share market left off steady.

In Federal, State and Railway Bonds a good business was done, the heaviest being in Tennessees, by private purchase—$145,000 at 91 ⅌ cent., which about clears the market at that price—the same figure being bid for more. One of the Savings Banks took $80,000 of the purchases made to-day. United States Sixes advanced to 108 ⅌ cent., sales. The Fives of 1874 are still held above the market; the coupons scarce, and the registered held in one or two hands. The Texas Indemnity Fives sold at 102 ⅌ cent. For North Carolinas, 95¾@96 ⅌ cent. was paid, and for Missouri's, 83½ ⅌ cent. Minnesota 8 ⅌ cents. sold up to 106, and California 7 ⅌ cents. at 89½. The Northwestern bankers are buying moderate parcels of nearly all the State Stocks, for the basis of additional circulation in Illinois, Wisconsin, &c., which begins to be wanted, under the gradual improvement of business. The demand continues for the Railway mortgages. Michigan Centrals and Illinois Centrals were supplied at yesterday's prices or ⅛ ⅌ cent. under, while Hannibal and St. Joseph took another rise of 1 ⅌ cent., and Erie fourth mortgage 1 ⅌ cent., selling at 66 ⅌ cent. The thirds are held for 85, and the seconds for 96 ⅌ cent. Hudsons, Harlems, and Michigan Southerns are all firm. For the Sinking Funds of Michigan Southern 70½ was bid, and 80½ for the first mortgage.

Since the Boston mail, no movement is observable in Exchange. The export of Produce direct from New-York this week—$2,126,000—is unusually active, and has furnished a fair supply of merchant bills. The bankers, however, have advanced their terms, as quoted at the close of yesterday's mail, to 108⅞@109 on London. The mail on Saturday will go by the screw steamer Edinburgh, of Dale's Liverpool line. French Exchange, very quiet at previous quotations. The settlements for the Exchange sold for yesterday's mail have increased the supply of Money offering to the Brokers at 5 ⅌ cent. In Discounts we hear of nothing new outside of Bank. Prime selections of paper continue scarce.

The Adams Express Company furnish us with the New-Orleans papers to Saturday last, April 14. From these we quote of the Exchange market as follows:

> "The Exchange market has been depressed from the opening to the close of the week, and the stereotyped quotations of the previous review had undergone no marked change of any kind. Offerings of both Foreign and Domestic, though not heavy for the season, have proved more than ample for the demand, which has been restricted throughout, and buyers and sellers have daily contended for an advantage in rates all round. They appear, however, to be as far divided this evening as at any time during the past ten days, and in the present condition of the market we can only refer to the following as approximating figures, viz.: Clear Sterling bills, 107¾@108¼, and 108¾ for exceptional signatures. Bills, with shipping documents attached, 107@107¼@107½. Francs, 5f.18¾@5f.23¾ ⅌ dollar. Sixty-day bills on New-York, &c., 1¼@1½ and 1¾ ⅌ cent. discount. Sight, ⅛ discount to par, and ⅛ ⅌ cent. premium.

> "We have private advices to the effect that the Governor of Missouri has agreed that he will take no immediate steps to sell out this road in default of the payment of the July interest, amounting to about $96,000, and that he will so pledge himself in writing to the officers of the Company. In case this is done, the President of the road, Mr. GEORGE R. TAYLOR, and the Directors, who are all men of wealth, propose to advance $100,000 toward completing the road from Syracuse to Georgetown, a distance of twenty-one miles. Eight miles of this portion are already graded."

The Times' City Article of April 3, says: The English funds opened on Monday at a fresh decline of one-eighth, but a rally occurred in the middle of the day, and was maintained to the close. The recovery was attributable to a slight improvement in the quotations from Paris.

There was no bullion operation of any importance at the Bank.

The Tea trade, April 2: The deliveries in London estimated for the week, were 898,084 ℔s., which is a decrease of 77,344 ℔s., compared with the previous statement.

The following is from the Times' City Article, April 4: The statement of Lord JOHN RUSSELL last evening regarding the recognition of the new territories of the King of Sardinia, and of the probability of a Conference of the Powers to arrange the Swiss part of the Savoy question, caused Consols to open buoyantly this morning at an advance of an eighth, and subsequently experienced a further rise. Consols were quoted at the official close at 94⅞@⅜.

Although to-morrow is the 4th of the month, there was a much better supply of money in the discount market to-day.

Foreign Stocks have been rather active, and in several cases an advance has taken place. The closing price of the French Three ⅌ Cents. was 69f. 50c., showing a rise of nearly a quarter. In the foreign exchanges, this afternoon, the rates on Paris and Amsterdam were slightly higher, while Hamburg declined.

There was no withdrawal of gold from the Bank.

American Railway Securities were steady.

Grand Trunk of Canada advanced 1 ⅌ cent.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, April 2 and 3.—The demand for COTTON continues limited, and the sales for the two days barely reach 11,000 bales, 3,000 on speculation and for export. Prices irregular.

LONDON CORN MARKET, April 2.—The market was steady at the improvement of last week.

LIVERPOOL CORN AND BREADSTUFFS MARKET—APRIL 3.—A moderate consumptive demand was experienced for Wheat and Flour, at the full prices of this day week, the slight reaction noticed on Friday being recovered. Oats unaltered. Barley, Peas and Beans were each held for extreme rates, which rather checked sales. Indian Corn found buyers to a fair extent on Friday's prices, being a trifle under the currency of this day week.

LONDON PRODUCE AND PROVISION MARKET—APRIL 3.—Sugar flat. Coffee firm. Rice quiet. Tallow quiet at 56s. 6d. ⅌ cwt., on the spot. Other articles unaltered.

STEINWAY & SONS

PATENT OVERSTRUNG GRANDS
AND SQUARE PIANOS

Are now considered the Best Pianos manufactured. Opinion of nearly all the greatest and most prominent Musicians and Artists regarding these Instruments:

The undersigned, having personally examined and practically tested the improvement in Grand Pianos, invented by H. STEINWAY, in which the covered strings are overstrung above those remaining, do hereby certify:

1. That as a result of the said improvement the voice of the Piano is greatly improved in quality, quantity and power.

2. The sound by Steinway's improvement is much more even, less harsh, stronger, and much better prolonged, than that realized in any other Piano with which we are acquainted.

3. The undersigned regard the improvement of Mr. Steinway as most novel, ingenious and important. No Piano of similar construction has ever been known or used, so far as the undersigned know or believe:

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Arago, with dates from Southampton to April 4, arrived here last evening. Her news is of less than usual interest. A Congress of the Great Powers upon the questions of Italy and Savoy is now said to be determined upon. The Swiss Government had addressed a fresh protest to the French Foreign-office, against the transfer of Faucigny and Chablais. In the meantime, French troops had occupied Nice and Savoy. At the opening of the Sardinian Chambers, King Victor Emanuel had made the customary speech, reviewing the condition of the kingdom. The progress of Italian unity was made the especial topic of felicitation. It is understood that the King of Naples has abandoned the idea of throwing troops into the Papal States. Austria has at last protested in form against the annexation of Savoy by France, and of Central Italy by Piedmont. She regards both as substantial violations of the conditions of Villafranca. From Spain we learn that a movement in favor of Don Carlos had been inaugurated by Gen. Ortega, at the head of 3,000 men. His troops had not been attacked by Government forces. General discontent prevailed in Spain among all classes, in regard to the Moorish treaty. It was understood that the O'Donnell Cabinet would be obliged to resign immediately. The English Parliament had adjourned to April 16. Warrants for the arrest of Sayers and Heenan had been issued by the authorities of Hertfordshire, who were resolute to prevent the great prize fight taking place within the limits of that county.

Dates from Rio to March 10, announce the return of the Emperor to his capital amid the most enthusiastic rejoicings. The Coffee market was reported firm, with large sales and shipments. The United States sloop-of-war Dolphin was at Bahia.

Our advices from the River Plate, to Feb. 21, announce the election of Señor Derqui to the Presidency of the Argentine Conferation, a circumstance that would insure, it was thought, the adhesion of Buenos Ayres to the Union. The difficulty between the English and Paraguayan Government had been settled; the latter releasing the English subject it had held imprisoned, and the former setting free the steamer detained at Buenos Ayres.

By the arrival of the Ariel, from Aspinwall on the 10th, we learn of the death on March 17, of Beverly L. Clark, United States Minister to Guatemala and Honduras. It was currently rumored that Mr. Clark had been absolved from his marriage vows two days before his death, that he might attach himself to the Order of Franciscan monks. He made a public profession of his faith in the Roman Catholic religion at Guatemala in December last, and his funeral services were celebrated in accordance with that ritual.

Dates from Salvador are to the 29th ult. President Barrios was increasing his military force so rapidly that laborers were becoming few. It was estimated that the indigo crop would amount to nearly 12,000 ceroons of 150 pounds each. The Nicaraguan Congress had approved the British treaty. Costa Rica was quiet. Deputies to Congress will be elected in May. Indications seemed favorable to the reëlection to the Presidency of Dr. Jose Montealegre, the present incumbent.

The news from South America is not important. To the 22d ult. Ecuador was quiet, and it was likely that it would continue so until June, as the rainy season would not terminate until that time. Castilla had resumed the Presidential Chair of Peru, and had issued a proclamation boasting of his exploits in Ecuador. The investigation into the circumstances of the death of Capt. Lambert, of H. M. S. Vixen, proved so decisively that he had been murdered, that the Government was obliged to relinquish the theory that he had committed suicide. There had been a row at Callao between the crew of a boat from the ship of the French Admiral and that belonging to a Peruvian man-of-war. The Bolivian Government was anticipating a favorable report from her Commissioner, who had been sent to this country to negotiate for a loan of $1,000,000, with the custom dues of the port of Cobiza as collateral security. In Chili, the Government troops had severely chastised the Indians of Arauco. The quiet which prevailed through the country had given an impetus to business.

A number of Abolition petitions from Massachusetts were yesterday, by a strict party vote, laid upon the table of the Senate. Mr. Wilson's resolution of inquiry into the contracts for iron made by the War Department, was previously debated by its proposer and Gen. Davis, and was finally laid aside. Mr. Slidell's resolution, providing for a series of adjournments from today until the 1st of May, coming up, after some opposition, it was passed by a vote of 26 to 22. The Homestead bill was then discussed, Mr. Gwin's amendment relative to the mineral lands occasioning some remarks of Mr. Latham on the land titles of California. Without action the Senate adjourned. The House commenced its business for the day by passing the Deficiency bill. The Senate's amendment to the Military Academy bill, authorizing a regiment of mounted volunteers for the Texan boundary, was subsequently considered in Committee of the Whole; Mr. Stanton opposing and Mr. Curtis advocating the amendment. The debate was participated in by Messrs. Reagan, Hamilton and Olin, but without action the Committee rose. The adjournment resolutions of Mr. Bonham were read for information, but the Republicans objected to a vote.

Our Washington correspondent furnishes us a remarkable letter, written by President Buchanan, under date of July 12, 1857, to Hon. Robert J. Walker, then Governor of Kansas. In it Mr. Buchanan declares that the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas is the point on which Gov. Walker's success depends, and that on this question he is himself prepared to stand or fall, as "it is the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill; the principle of Popular Sovereignty, and the principle at the foundation of all Popular Government." Mr. Schnabel yesterday, while before the Committee of which Mr. Covode is Chairman, testified as to the existence of this letter, and narrated a curious conversation which he had regarding it with Attorney-General Black. That official, in the name of the President, challenged the production of the document, and it is forthcoming.

The Republican Convention of this State, to nominate delegates to Chicago, met yesterday, and organized by the selection of Hon. E. W. Leavenworth as President. The attendance was very large. If the reception of the allusions made by the temporary Chairman to Mr. Seward be a test, the sentiment of the majority was unmistakably friendly to the nomination of Mr. Seward. The following were selected as Delegates at Large: William M. Evarts, Preston King, John L. Schoolcraft, and Henry R. Selden. The District delegates were subsequently selected, and the Convention adjourned.

The steamship Nashville left yesterday for Charleston, bearing a large number of New-York Delegates to the National Conventinn. Among those on board were Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson and Messrs. Isaac V. Fowler, Samuel F. Butterworth, Dean Richmond, Wm. Cassidy, Peter Cagger and Auguste Belmont.

The Methodist Conference closed its sittings yesterday, after making the usual appointments. Rev. J. B. Wakeley entered into an explanation of his eulogy on Bill Poole, as alluded to in the Times, and made a pretty strong attack on one of the reporters, a member of his own Church, but which he afterwards modified.

The Presbytery of New-York yesterday expressed its approval of the system on which the Boards of the Church are at present constructed, and its disapproval of the project for changing the seat of the Board of Domestic Missions from Philadelphia. Dr. Krebs and Dr. Spring were elected clerical delegates to the General Assembly, with Dr. Bannard and Mr. Alexander as alternates. Messrs. Lowrie and Walker were chosen lay delegates, with Messrs. Belknap & Allen as alternates. The Presbytery decided to empower trustees to purchase the mortgage of $4,000 on the Twenty-eighth-street Church, on condition that the congregation should pay off the floating debt, and that the church should remain under the charge of the Presbytery so long as the amount of the mortgage is not demanded. A committee was appointed to report on the application of the Fiftieth-street New-School Church to join the Presbytery.

At the meeting of the Police Commissioners, yesterday noon, Mr. Bowen presented $5,000, the salary which he is to receive for discharging the duties of General Superintendent, to the Department for the purpose of fitting up libraries in destitute Station-houses, and filling up others. It was determined that the Sanitary Police, called for by the new law, and whose duty it is to examine into the condition of ferry boats, and slaughter and tenement houses, should consist of a Sergeant and five men. A resolution was adopted directing that liquor-dealers who are carrying on their business without a license should be furnished with the section of the new law which relates to them. Policemen needed by towns which have no regularly organized force, will be furnished by the City at the rate of $2 50 per day for each officer. The Governors of the Almshouse held a brief session yesterday, to make the necessary preparations for their retirement from office. Governors Dugro, Smith, Oliver, and B. F. Pinckney, were appointed a Committee to attend to the transfer of books and papers now in possession of the Board, to the new Commission. No business of moment was transacted by the Commissioners of Emigration yesterday. The total number of aliens arrived at this port to April 18 was 11,140, against 8,248 to the same date in 1859. Of this number, 2,418 arrived during the last week. There are 755 inmates in the Ward's Island Institutions. The balance of the Commutation Fund on hand is $12,981 12. The Board of Education had no quorum last evening.

The Stock Market was less excited yesterday, but prices, at the close, as well as through the dealings of the day generally steady. No movement in Exchange and no alteration in money rates.

Cotton, Flour and Wheat were very moderately dealt in, though the tendency of prices was rather in favor of buyers. More activity was discernible in Corn, Rye and Pork. Sugars were unusually brisk,—over 5,000 hhds. of all kinds having been disposed of, privately and at auction. A fair demand existed for Coffee, Codfish, Mackerel, Hay, Hops and Linseed Oil. Other branches of trade exhibited no remarkable changes. There were 484 vessels of all classes in port.

The Live Stock markets have been well supplied; the total receipts at all the regular City yards, for the week ending yesterday, numbering: 4,041 beef cattle 161 milch cows, 1,218 veal calves, 5,104 sheep, and 3,015 live hogs; total, of all kinds, 13,539. At yesterday's general weekly market, beeves sold about ¼c. ℔ lb., estimated dressed weights, below the preceding market, say, first quality, 9½c.@10c., and medium, 8c.@9c.; very poor to fair, 6c.@7½c. Milch cows are a drug, and sell at irregular but low rates. Veals were ¼c.@½c. ℔ lb., live weight, lower. Sheep were firm at last week's prices. Live hogs were in limited supply, and advanced about ¼c. ℔ lb.

A Bomb-Shell for Charleston.

Hon. Robert J. Walker has at last published Mr. Buchanan's celebrated letter to him, urging the submission of the Lecompton Constitution to the People of Kansas. We give this interesting document in another column of this morning's Times. It will abundantly repay perusal. It comes before the public just in time for the Charleston Convention. That illustrious body will have an opportunity to see how thoroughly and entirely President Buchanan was the champion of Popular Sovereignty in Kansas—how carefully and accurately he himself marked out the programme which Gov. Walker followed with so much ability, and how perfectly treacherous and base was the treatment which the Governor afterwards experienced at the hands of the President. They will find, too, the President was then quite as ardent a champion of Popular Sovereignty as Mr. Douglas himself.

Mr. Buchanan writes to Gov. Walker that his success depends "upon the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas." "On the question of submitting the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas," he says, "I am willing to stand or fall. It is the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill,—the principle of popular sovereignty, and the principle at the foundation of all popular government. The more it is discussed the stronger it will become." Can anything be stronger than this language? Could anybody have given a more explicit or more emphatic indorsement of Popular Sovereignty, as understood by Gov. Walker and Judge Douglas, than this? Mr. Buchanan declares that if the Convention should adopt this principle, the censures of the Southern States will pass away and be forgotten. In replying to these censures he advises Gov. Walker "to make the great principle of the submission of the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas conspicuously prominent. On this you will be irresistible." Gov. Walker acted upon this advice. He insisted upon the adoption of this policy. But when it was discarded by the Convention, and they refused to follow the President's advice, the President himself took exactly the opposite ground, and denounced Gov. Walker for having acted upon his recommendations!

From that time to this the President, and the entire Administration wing of the Democratic Party, through all their organs, have waged war upon Walker and Stanton, and upon Douglas for espousing their cause in the Senate of the United States. They have denied over and over again that Mr. Buchanan had ever advised Walker to pursue any such course, and have labored to prove that the submission of the Constitution to the popular vote was utterly useless and found no warrant in the Federal Constitution. In his Message of December, 1858, President Buchanan makes a long argument to prove that he had no power to advise a rejection of the Constitution if it were not submitted to the people. "To have done this," he says, would have been a violation of the Kansas and Nebraska act; it would have equally violated the great principle of Popular Sovereignty at the foundation of our institutions:—it would have been in opposition to many precedents in our history, commencing in the very best age of the Republic, of the admission of Territories as States into the Union, without a previous vote of the people approving their Constitution." And the Southern opposition of Popular Sovereignty have relied upon Mr. Buchanan as the great bulwark of their cause from that day to this.

This letter to Gov. Walker makes a striking and humiliating exposure of the duplicity and treachery which have characterized the Administration of Mr. Buchanan. It shows that no men are in half so much danger of incurring his hostility as those who act upon his advice. Nothing could be more explicit than his instructions to Gov. Walker, and nothing more bitter than his warfare upon him for having followed them. The lesson of this lettert will not be lost at Charleston.

Senatorial Amenities—Messrs. Mason and Sumner.

It is hardly fair to expect that the Senate should not contribute its share to the unusual "spiciness" by which this session of Congress has been marked; but we must say that we think its quota might have been furnished in some form a little more pleasing than the recent passage at arms between Messrs. Mason and Sumner on the Sanborn affair. We do not think Mr. Mason a model of impartiality and moderation. In all matters in which the question of Slavery is in any way mixed up, he is apt to be a good deal sharper, more energetic, supercilious and one-sided than the occasion calls for or good sense dictates. His display of homespun was not all that could be desired as a political demonstration, either in point of effect or of taste.

He has exhibited, moreover, in this Harper's Ferry investigation, a determination to secure the attendance of witnesses from Massachusetts at any cost, by no means in keeping with his complete indifference to the great secrets which Gov. Wise has solemnly acknowledged himself to possess with regard to the John Brown foray. If information about the plot be really desired, Mr. Mason may fairly be charged with a good deal of inconsistency—to use no stronger term—in taking no steps to bring the explosive Virginian politician before the Committee, while he pursues the martyred Hyatt and the kicking Sanborn with such unbending pertinacity. He knows perfectly well that, if Wise's voluntary declaration is to be believed, there is twice as much to be got out of that illustrious personage as out of the Concord schoolmaster; and that martial individual, in closely-buttoned surtout and white neckcloth, would be a vastly more picturesque and respectable object at the bar of an august assembly, than a Massachusetts pedagogue in dressing-gown and slippers. No witness the Sergeant-at-Arms can catch would contribute so much by his appearance to the dignity of the Senate as the great Ex-Governor, provided always that the heat of an examination did not bring on one of those explosions which have so often terrified both his friends and his enemies.

But notwithstanding all this, we cannot concur with Mr. Sumner in thinking that Mr. Mason can fairly be expected to hear himself compared to one of "the judges in hell" with gentlemanly equanimity, or to hear the course which he recommends the Senate to adopt likened to the practice of courts of justice in the infernal regions, without giving vent to some little expression of feeling.

The mode of procedure which, according to Mr. Sumner, is in use at the tribunals of His Satanic Majesty, of giving judgment first and hearing counsel afterwards, may, and no doubt is, perfectly adapted to the wants and wishes of the suitors and of the bar. Without having as yet seen any information in the columns of the Herald on the subject, we may fairly presume that the rules of those courts have been carefully drawn up, and are such as afford most facilities for the dispatch of the peculiar class of cases which alone come before them. Their partial adoption in some of our own criminal Courts, in the trial of such persons as pugilists and Ward politicians, in which one Judge generally makes up his mind to let the criminal off before the trial begins, ought to be sufficient to prevent candid persons from utterly and absolutely condemning them. But it must at the same time be remarked that neither the Judges nor the barristers of the Infernal Court are persons whom a United States Senator can either be expected to admire or to imitate. Their habits, and language, and social standing are such as a large number of gentlemen in the Southern States, as well as elsewhere, utterly repudiate and abhor. The code under which they practice is one which we should not tolerate on paper for one moment, and the only thing in which the meanest of earthly lawyers would deign to compete with them would be the preparation of bills of exceptions in defence of very notorious ruffians.

Under these circumstances, Mr. Mason may fairly be pardoned for giving Mr. Sumner a hint about good manners on hearing himself, even indirectly, compared to occupants of the judicial Bench in the infernal regions. There is no possible way of looking at the allusion which will make it seem harmless, particularly as the special point of likeness that was suggested is that peculiarity of Satanic procedure which is, of all others, most opposed to earthly notions of justice and fair play.

Nor can we subscribe to Mr. Sumner's doctrine that the mere aptness of an illustration is of itself a sufficient justification for its use. If it were allowable to compare people or things which displease us to whatever in earth or air they seemed to us to resemble, without any regard to the character of the illustration itself, or of the source from which it was drawn, similes would either disappear from the rhetorical armory, under the influence of cudgels and pistols, or fishwomen and butcher boys would rise into the front rank of orators and writers. For filthy vigor or dirty point, or thoroughly offensive aptness, we will back the illustrations of the denizens of Fulton Market, with any odds, against the best efforts in the same field of either Charles Sumner or Edward Everett, or even, were he still living, of the great master of illustration —Macaulay himself. The rule Mr. Sumner lays down for himself—that "in denouncing an outrage," "if a precedent from a bad place should apply, he should not hesitate to use it"—is one which he cannot act upon without damaging himself far more than his opponents. "Precedents from bad places" are apt to be fully as unpleasant to handle as to have hurled at you. If a man gets into a ditch to fling mud and garbage at his adversaries, he must not be disappointed if he retire from the field with at least as many marks of the conflict on his own garments as he has left on theirs.

Legislative Photographs.—It is too late, we fear, to ask the members of the Legislature of 1860 to deposit, each man, a lock of his hair in the New-York City Hall as a memorial of his devotion to our municipal interests. But could we not make a collection of Legislative photographs, to be hung, with the names of the originals appended, in the ante-room of the Rogues' Gallery at the Police office? The system of daguerreotyping pickpockets has its merits, even though it fails, from the nature of the case, to meet all the expectations of justice. Autolycus, who is caught and committed to the pencil of the sun to-day, in his full beard and whiskers, will shave his respectable phiz to-morrow and become a new man at his old tricks. But the members of the Legislature are rather proud of their exploits than otherwise; and if their portraits were well taken, would probably remain recognizable by the help of the same, for many years to come. Moral indignation being evidently thrown away upon these personages, it is surely worth while to preserve the most exact possible descriptions and representations of them, that our posterity may know precisely what sort of individuals they were who commanded, in the year 1860, the public confidence and emptied the public treasury of the Empire State.

Our Public Perils.

Is Slavery, after all, the greatest evil that afflicts this Republic? Is there no other danger looming on the political horizon, which good men should watch and guard against? Here, in this State of New-York, is there not some peril quite as great as that which grows out of the Lemmon Slave Case, and the effort of Virginia to bring Slavery into our borders? We respectfully ask our neighbors of the Tribune whether this State,—the whole country,—and the entire fabric of representative government are not in greater danger of being conquered, disgraced and ruined by venality and corruption than by negro slavery?

Our State Legislature has just adjourned. It consisted of 128 representatives of the people in the Assembly and 32 in the Senate,—men chosen by the people to make their laws. They have been in session over one hundred days, and have passed some unimportant and perhaps unobjectionable bills. But look at the main features of their legislation. The only bills which have created any special interest are those involving money:—and no man of common intelligence can doubt that their action upon these bills has been purchased and paid for. So systematic a disregard of the public interest,—so methodical a contempt for justice, decency, and the rights and wishes of those concerned, can be explained upon no other hypothesis than that of bribery. Take our City railroads as an example. Nobody asked for the passage of those bills:—everybody remonstrated against it. The only portion of the State in the least degree interested either way in them was the City of New-York: everybody in New-York except the grantees resisted their enactment unless they could be amended. The amendments asked were such as were needed to protect the public against the monopolies they created. What public interest could lead members from the interior obstinately to resist every amendment, and force the bills through in their most obnoxious shape? What public motive could prompt honorable members from Utica, from Oswego, from Rochester or Buffalo, to persist—against every dictate of justice, and in spite of the most earnest remonstrances—in fixing upon the people of New-York the most oppressive monopolies ever fastened upon any city? Why should country members insist, with such uncompromising pertinacity, on giving away grants for which responsible men were ready to pay a million dollars?

There is only one answer to these inquiries:—They were bribed to do so. Their votes were bought and paid for. If the Grand Jury of Albany County would do its duty,—if respectable men, cognizant of the facts, would give justice the benefit of their knowledge,—we believe a score of members, at the lowest estimate, would be indicted, tried, convicted and sent to the Penitentiary, for the crime of selling the public interests to put money in their own pockets. In any community properly alive to the base degradation of such conduct on the part of public men, these persons would be promptly punished for their misconduct. Even in the despotism of Austria, malfeasance on the part of public officials is punished with the utmost rigor, and numbers of them have committed suicide to evade legal responsibility for their crimes.

But it is notorious that in this Republic,—in city, State and National affairs—corruption of the most flagrant kind is infecting every department of our Government. No regard whatever is paid to the wants of the public or the rights of individuals. A set of men seek to obtain office, utterly unfit for its duties, insensible to its obligations, and eager for place merely as a means of plunder. Year by year the whole control of legislation is falling, more and more, into the hands of these unprincipled adventurers. Government under such a system becomes merely an organized robbery. The whole community lies at the mercy of the worst portion of its members. The energies that elsewhere are expended in warring against the laws, here control and make them. Men who, under a firm and upright administration of justice, would figure as criminals at the bar, here get upon the bench.

It is not easy to see the end of such a career as we are now running. Every one sees and admits the evil, but no one seems disposed to apply a remedy. Politicians,—those who are not partners in the game of robbery,—are so busy with their party schemes that they have no time to think of the public morals. We are all so busy checking and restricting Slavery that we have neither time nor thought for the more monstrous and deadly disease that is gnawing at our vitals at home. Yet our Republic is threatened with much more serious disaster from this source than from Slavery. It is corruption—the debasement of public life, the degradation of political morals —that brands our institutions in the eyes of the world, and causes the best friends of popular progress to pause before imitating our example.

Turkish Finance—Approaching Crisis.—The cloud in the East is gathering more darkly with every passing month. The latest financial operations of the Sultan are of a kind which should satisfy reasonable people that there is much more serious mischief for the peace of Europe lurking in the condition of Turkey, than in the vaticinations of the alarmist English Press or the petulances of Lord John Russell. The Porte has just negotiated at Galata a loan of 20,000,000 piastres for three months at six per cent.; but it agrees to receive its money at the rate of 130 piastres to the pound sterling, and to repay at the rate of 100 piastres to the pound sterling. At the same time the Government has contracted a loan of 9,000,000 piastres more for the expenses of the Palace, to be repaid in four months, at two per cent. interest per month. One-third of this loan is taken in caimes, paper-money of the State, at three per cent. discount; one-third in Treasury bonds at 21 per cent. discount; and one-third in State Consols at 41 per cent. discount! Furthermore, one of the lenders receives on his advance of 5,000,000 piastres, as collateral security, jewels to the value of 2,500,000 piastres.

A spendthrift heir reduced to such transactions as these would certainly be "given over" by his financial physicians. That Turkey can escape from the gulf into which she is hourly slipping, without some tremendous financial convulsion which will try her disjointed political system as it has never been tried before, is surely impossible. And when the crisis comes, the strain of it upon the diplomatic relations of Western Europe will be something worth recording, even by the "sensational" Muse of Modern History.

Help for the Pope.—It is an old saying that people must always go from home to learn the news. We are indebted to the Limerick Chronicle for the information that a "Papal Brigade" is now organizing in New-York, and that the members of the Tipperary Artillery have been invited to cross the Atlantic, become American citizens and join this force of pious crusaders. If this news be correct there will be less trouble at the Charleston Convention than has been commonly anticipated. The heroes who would otherwise have volunteered to keep the Democracy sound by punching the heads of all doubtful devotees, are precisely the men to fight for the Pope, or at least to take the pay of His Holiness for that purpose. Why cannot this "noble army"—if, indeed, it exists—favor us with a public parade in honor of the excommunication of liberated Italy?

Death of Colonel Mure.

The year 1860 threatens to follow the bad example set by its predecessor, and to enrich its own chaplet of memories at the expense of the literature of the world. The month of March has taken from England one of her most accomplished scholars, and from the culture of ancient history one of its most successful laborers. Col. William Mure, of Caldwell, the "easy chief" of all British writers on the Literature and Language of Ancient Greece, who combined the critical accuracy of a Donaldson with the enthusiasm of a Mitford, has just passed away, leaving his great work, like Arnold, and Niebuhr, and Macaulay, a magnificent torso. Col. Mure was the head of an ancient and eminent family, one member of which now worthily represents Her Britannic Majesty's Government as Consul at New-Orleans; and he had played a respectable part in the contemporary politics of Great Britain, entering Parliament as member for Renfrewshire, in the Conservative interest, but following the fortunes of Sir Robert Peel, when that great leader braved the mob of country gentlemen in behalf of Free-Trade and the rights of the English people.

But the tastes and affinities of Col. Mure's mind led him naturally into the academic walks of life. Twenty years ago, at the age of thirty-eight, he published a Tour in Greece, full of curious disquisition and learned speculations, which revealed the bent of his intellect. His Critical History of the Language and Literature of Ancient Greece was the riper result of studies in the same direction, prosecuted, in great part, in the midst of the same scenes. The scholarship of Col. Mure was a healthy scholarship of the open air. He never hesitated to undertake a voyage to Greece, when it was desirable to settle by ocular inspection some long-disputed question of Homeric topography; and the tone of reality and freshness which he thus imparted to his investigations clothes his most learned and elaborate treatises with vivacity, force and interest. Five volumes of his History have been issued, bringing the work down to the Attic age. How much more matter the author has left prepared for the press we do not yet know; but if the monument which this indefatigable searcher after truth so earnestly strove to rear must forever remain incomplete, the beauty and character of the fragments already achieved will preserve his name forever green in scholastic annals. Col. Mure's examination of the Homeric writings alone would have insured for him a lasting reputation, and made his name a permanent authority.

Mystery Afloat.

The good people of Cork, in Ireland, are greatly exercised in their minds by a mysterious craft which has been lying in the offing of the man-of-war roads at Queenstown, for nearly four months. This vessel, which, except that she is apparently stationary, might well be believed to be the "Flying Dutchman," is a rakish clipper of 700 tons burden, hails from Philadelphia, is called the Charles B. Truitt, and has on board a cargo of 23,000 finely finished rifles. The Irish correspondent of the London Times has called attention to her existence, and to the profound mystery which enshrouds her. She is perfectly seaworthy, has her full complement of hands, and yet behaves like "a painted ship upon a painted ocean." Is she waiting for the proclamation of the Irish Republic? or has she some secret connection with the Carlist revolution which has just broken out in the mountains of Spain? But for the "rifles" and the "fine finish," we might suspect this phantom-ship of some connection with George Law and his peripatetic cargo of muskets. As it is, what do our brethren of the Quaker City mean by sending out such mysterious missionaries upon the high seas?

Miscellaneous.

—Mr. Charles Stearns, a man of wealth and position in Springfield, Mass., died recently in the Northampton Lunatic Asylum. He was a remarkable character, in various ways. By trade a mason, he became an active operator in real estate, and petted a mania for putting up houses. His invariable answer to applicants for tenements was, "I have none now, but I can build one immediately." He served several terms in both branches of the Massachusetts Legislature. Mr. Stearns' curious proclivity for building recalls the history of a similar character, who is still living in the village of Middletown, in this State. He builds a handsome cottage in the space of three months, moves his family into it, gets it warm, sells it, moves out and builds another, into which, again, he removes, and then sells it, and so on, ad infinitum. Quite a settlement has grown up in this way on the outskirts of the place, and it is popularly known as "Van Hornville."

—According to the Washington Star, which must be regarded as good authority, for lack of official information on the subject, the police found as much difficulty in catching Mr. Pryor as Mr. Potter did in getting him to fight; with this difference—that they did catch him at last, and Potter didn't. When the warrant had been issued, Pryor was tracked to the classic Virginian locality of "Oxen Hill," but at that point his trail was covered up. A Virginia Judge declared that he would dismiss the parties if brought before him; and certain other friends of Pryor affirmed, on their honors, that "the fight had come off." The next best thing to be done was to arrest Mr. Chisman. He was comfortably nabbed while stepping off a steamboat at Alexandria. Pryor, being principal, should have had priority of arrest. Chisman was only a secondary object.

—The Richmond papers announce a lecture to be delivered in that city by "Mozis Addums." He advertises that it will be "An Apology for Fools." When the announcement first appeared it was supposed that "Mr. Addums" had some sort of connection with the Harper's Ferry affair, and that he intended to say a good word for Gov. Wise and the military heroes of the invasion. This notion was soon dissipated, and it was then reported that he intended to apologize for John Brown & Company, and while it prevailed he was, naturally enough, in a position of some personal peril. Explanations being demanded, "Mr. Addums" satisfied the community that he intended to speak solely and exclusively on his own behalf, —whereupon indignation subsided, and his tickets met with a ready sale.

—The trial of young Brownlow, son of the famous or notorious Parson Brownlow, for the murder of a fellow student, James W. Reese, in Emory and Henry College, has resulted in his acquittal. The verdict was hailed with great applause by the auditory in the Court-room.

MR. ELLIS B. SCHNABEL BEFORE THE COVODE COMMITTEE.

Mr. Ellis B. Schnabel, having been sworn before the Covode Committee, testified as follows:

Question—Were you ever shown a letter, dated July 12, 1857, written by the President of the United States to Governor Robert J. Walker, the latter then being in Kansas?

Answer—I never saw but one letter in manuscript written by the President to Gov. Walker, and that, I believe, bore the date July 12, 1857.

Question—Was it shown to you confidentially; or are you at liberty, without violating any promises of secrecy, to speak of its contents?

Answer—I am under no obligations of secrecy whatever. I have discussed the merits of that letter with a great many different persons within the last eighteen months. I presume twenty different people in Washington to-day have been long aware of my knowledge of this letter. Gov. Walker exhibited it to me in vindication of his course in Kansas, and at the time also stated that he himself was under no confidential restraints. At this time Gov. Walker was exceedingly indignant and angry. He also freely expressed his fear that the President would not only destroy the Democratic Party, but the country with it. I urged immediate publication. He feared the consequences to the country, and thought its welfare would be best secured by not being too precipitant, although he stated with determined emphasis, that inasmuch as the President had suddenly changed front since the date of that letter, the tendency of which change might be to disparage him (Walker) in public estimation as a faithful servant of the people, should that ever appear, either in assailing his honor, or the manner in which he discharged his duties as a public officer, he not only felt entirely free, but would justify and defend himself before the country, by publishing the letter of the 12th of July, 1857. He expressly stated that the letter was semi-official, and entirely divested of confidential restrictions. As for myself, having no confidential obligations resting upon me, and having freely discussed the matter with numerous persons at intervals during a year and a half, at least, I feel perfectly free to speak of its contents.

Question—What is your recollection of its contents?

Answer—The time I saw the letter was soon after the resignation of Gov. Walker. I had with many other gentlemen, earnestly urged his appointment; hence, I felt a profound interest in his success. Conversing with him about what was deemed an indirect removal of him from Kansas, led to the introduction of this letter at the interview referred to. I considered it a most extraordinary document, when I remembered that Mr. Walker was no longer Governor of Kansas. It seemed to me from the contents of this letter, that he was forced to abandon his post, because he had faithfully carried out, as far as he had power, the instructions and advice of President Buchanan. I consider the letter an unqualified indorsement of Gov. Walker's course in Kansas. I was particularly struck with the potent fact that the President considered the submission of the Constitution by the Convention, to the people of Kansas, as the true principle and interpretation of the Kansas and Nebraska bill. Further, that his views were equivalent to advising Gov. Walker to devote himself to the policy of submission, for the double reason, first, that it would secure his success, and his success would prove fatal to the resolutions against Gov. Walker, passed a short time previous in Georgia and Mississippi. The President plainly indicated to Gov. Walker that his success depended upon the doctrine of submission, and adds almost in the following words, that upon the doctrine of submission of the Constitution to the people, he (the President) was willing to stand or fall. I remember, also, that I was impressed with the singular solemnity of the President, from the fact the advice contained in the letter was clinched with a seemingly devout prayer. This is substantially my recollection of the spirit and meaning of that document as it was read to me by Gov. Walker.

Question—Have you recently conversed with any member of this Administration on the subject of this letter? If so, are you at liberty to speak of it?

Answer—I have recently had such conversation. There is no secret about it; no confidential restraint upon either of the parties. I have described the scene to many persons since Friday last. I presume this Committee, like many others, has heard of it. I had an accidental discussion with Attorney-General Black upon the truth of the existence of such a document as the one referred to in his testimony, he denying, and I affirming. He declared that no such document existed, and never did exist. I told him I had seen it. He affirmed that I was mistaken; that if such a letter existed no good citizen would withhold it. I inquired of him whether he invited its production in the name of the President. He replied "Yes," that he challenged its production. That if Gov. Walker had such a paper, his duty to his country, as well as to himself, required him to produce it. That in point of fact, however, he said the story was not founded in truth, or words to that effect. Many severe remarks passed between us. He was in a state of great excitement. When I referred a second time to my having seen it, he again, in high rage, declared that I was in gross error; that the President never wrote such a document; and if Gov. Walker, or any other person, pretended to have such a document, it was a mere pretence, to cover up a perpetrated or intended treason to the Democratic party, or a mere pretext for deserting to the Black Republican ranks. He further added, that if any one attacked the Administration on this ground, (to use his exact words,) "We will put a shirt upon him from which he will never escape."

Question—In case you had such interview, what led to it?

Answer—I was making a visit to one of the editors of the Constitution, in reference to another matter entirely. I met Judge Black there accidently. I did not expect to see him. My business with the editor was in no way, directly or indirectly, connected with the objects of this committee. I decline answering the question, solely on the ground of irrelevancy.

The following is a copy of Mr. Buchanan's celebrated letter to Robt. J. Walker, when Governor of Kansas, referred to in the testimony of Mr. Schnabel:

Washington, July 12, 1857.

My Dear Sir:

I duly received your letter of the 28th ult., on Friday last, and read it to the Cabinet then in session. The views which it contained were not calculated to assure us of your success, though we did not despond; hence you may judge with what satisfaction we received an account of the proceedings of the National Democratic Convention held at Lecompton on the 3d inst. The point on which your own success depends is the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas; and by the people, I mean, and I have no doubt you mean, the actual bona fide residents who have been long enough in the Territory to identify themselves with its fate. The Legislature determined three months as the period of residence to entitle individuals to vote for members of the Convention, and if the Convention should think proper to adopt the same period, to entitle individuals to vote for or against the Constitution, it appears to me this would be reasonable. On the question of submitting the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas, I am willing to stand or fall. It is the principle of the Kansas-Nebraska bill; the principle of popular sovereignty, and the principle at the foundation of all popular government. The more it is discussed the stronger it will become. Should the Convention of Kansas adopt this principle, all will be settled harmoniously, and, with the blessing of Providence, you will return triumphantly from your arduous, important and responsible station.

The strictures of the Georgia and Mississippi Conventions will then pass away and be speedily forgotten. In regard to Georgia, our news from that State is becoming better every day. We have not yet had time to hear much from Mississippi. Should you answer the resolution of the latter, I would advise you to make the great principle of the submission of the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas conspicuously prominent. On this you will be irresistible. With the question of climate every person is acquainted, and the more you insist upon this the more will our opponents urge that we are violating the principle of non-interference at the foundation of the Kansas and Nebraska bill. It is strange that people at a distance, who have no practical acquaintance with the condition of Kansas, should undertake to be wiser than those on the spot. It is, beyond all question, the true policy to build up a great Democratic party there to maintain the Constitution and the laws, composed of Pro-Slavery and Free-State Democrats, and if the majority should be against Slavery, to obtain such Constitutional provisions as will secure the rights of slaveholders in Missouri and other States, and maintain all the laws guarding the just rights of the South.

You are right in your conjecture as to the cause of Judge Williams' appointment. We supposed it would be peculiarly acceptable to yourself, and that he might aid in carrying out your policy.

Col. Cumming has been appointed Governor of Utah. This will cause his place to be vacant after the brief period required for settling up his business, and I certainly shall be disposed to fill it by the appointment of Mr. Stevens.

Gen. Harney has been ordered to command the expedition to Utah, but we must continue to have him with you, at least until you are out of the woods. Kansas is vastly more important at the present moment than Utah.

The pressure upon me continues without intercession. I pray the Divine Providence, in which I place my trust, may graciously preserve my life and my health until the end of my term. But God's will be done in any event.

With every sentiment of esteem,
I remain always sincerely your friend,
(Signed) JAMES BUCHANAN.
To Hon. Robert J. Walker.

Before producing this letter, Gov. Walker explained to the committee all the facts connected with it. It seems that Mr. Covode has been in pursuit of this point for several days. The development will take Attorney-General Black by surprise. McDougal and McElhone were both examined and testified to the existence and contents of the letter before it was produced. To-morrow Mr. Van Dyke will produce correspondence between himself and the President, which will afford another interesting chapter.

OUR RELATIONS WITH PERU.

Mr. Zagarra has been again instructed by his Government to propose submitting all matters in dispute between Peru and the United States to arbitration, nor does his Government care who constitute the arbitrators, so confident is she that right is on her side. Under no circumstances will she yield the question as a diplomatic one, let the consequences be what they may.

For some months past the Washington and Peru correspondents of the New-York Press have alluded to the claims for the seizure of two American vessels, loading guano at some deposits not allowed by law. The correspondence on the subject between Mr. Osma, then Minister from Peru, and Secretary Cass, was published at the time in the newspapers, but I find the following important document in the report from the Minister Zeballos to the Peruvian Congress. It is reported there that the Government of Chili made, at the request of the Peruvian Minister, an official declaration, and warned all the Chilian vessels engaged in loading guano, against the laws of Peru, that they did it at their own risk, and could not rely on the protection of that Government; and actually some vessels were captured and condemned by the courts of Peru for engaging in this illicit traffic, precisely under the same circumstances as the American vessels. But the following decision of the French Government embraces the whole matter, and must give weight to the position assumed by Peru. A copy of it has been submitted and filed at the Department of State:

Ministry of Foreign Relations,
Paris, July 15, 1859.

Sir: I had the honor to receive your note of the 25th February last, giving an account of the claim set up against the Peruvian Government by Mons. Frederic Ferrant, a Frenchman resident at Iquique and a Consular Agent of France in that port.

Mons. Ferrant shows that he bought from Gen. Rivas, an officer in insurrection against the Government of Lima, the privilege of taking guano from the deposits of "Pabellon de Pica" and "Punta de Lobos," and that two vessels freighted by him to load the aforesaid manure had been seized by the Peruvian Government. By virtue of these facts Mons. Ferrant solicits an indemnification of $87,773, and has addressed himself to you, praying to demand the said sum from that Government. You send to me the memorial of Mons. Ferrant and documents attached to it, begging to be instructed in regard to this matter.

The importance of the claim, the character of the claimant and the nature of the facts involved, invested the question with such a grave aspect that I thought necessary to submit it to the examination of the Commissioners of Disputed Claims (Comité du Contencieux) attached to this Department.

The Commissioners, at their session of 22d of June, came to the following resolution:

Whereas, The Peruvian Government has declared by numerous documents, published even in France, that guano could be loaded only at the deposits on Chinchas Islands, and that this order could not be changed but by special permission granted by the Custom-House of Callao under certain formalities described; and besides, the intention was made known to seize and prosecute all in violating this ordinance;

Whereas, Mons. Ferrant, well aware of these facts, bought from Gen. Rivas the aforesaid cargoes of guano, and should have foreseen the risk consequent upon such a negotiation, he cannot, therefore, get up a legitimate claim, the Peruvian Government having secured the fulfilment of her laws, and protected the national property against the advances of revolutionary chiefs, even with the use of force;

Whereas, Though a State is bound sometimes, by consequence of contracts or acts on the part of the Government de facto, this happens only when the State has been benefited by them, or when a violence or spoliation has been redressed by them; and finally, when formal stipulations have been entered into by treaties of pacification or amity; but that no considerations of this kind justifies the pretensions of Mons. Ferrant; and

That the contract agreed between himself and Gen. Rivas, far from being beneficial to the Peruvian Government, had for its object to give resources to his enemies.

That Mons. Ferrant was not coerced in any way, but freely contracted with the Government de facto of Gen. Vivanco; and, finally,

That Gen. Castilla did not promise in any way to fulfill the obligations contracted by his enemy.

Whereas, The decisions of European tribunals, which have denied to the Peruvian Government the restoration of cargoes of guano, taken away in violation of its revenue laws, were pronounced under very different circumstances; and when the cargoes had already been introduced in Europe, these decisions were founded on the principle that, in matters of moveable property, possession is a proper title, unless the things possessed have been lost or stolen; and that, in the case of Mons. Ferrant, this principle has no application.

The Commissioners give their opinion that Mons. Ferrant has no right to claim any indemnity whatever from the Peruvian Government in consequence of the seizure of his vessels and cargoes.

I have given my approbation to the opinion of the Commissioners of Contested Claims.

Accept my consideration, &c.
WALEWSKI.

To Mons. Huet, Consul-General and Chargé d'Affaires of France, at Lima.

In addition to this decision of the French Government, Mons. Ferrant was dismissed from office.

PERSONAL ITEMS.

Hon. John F. Potter and family have left for Wisconsin. He intended to go a week since, but the Pryor difficulty prevented. Col. F. W. Lander leaves for California via New-York to-morrow morning. It is proposed that he shall be serenaded in that City by some of his friends who will accompany him to New-York. He will stop at the Metropolitan Hotel. Last evening he was made the recipient of a very pretty impromptu ovation, in which his friends of all parties, North and South, united to bid him farewell. He is immensely popular here just now.

PARTANT POUR LA CHARLESTON.

Several of the Charleston delegates leave to-night and to-morrow morning, accompanied by a large number of members of Congress who have paired off.

THE SOUTH AMERICANS.

The Southern Opposition members have met in private caucus, and decided that if Douglas is the nominee of the Charleston Convention they will nominate a Southern man at Baltimore—Bell, Botts or Bates, Houston, of Texas, and Judge McLean were talked of.

A CONGRESSIONAL RECESS.

The Senate has determined to do no business after to-morrow till the 1st of May. The House will continue its business, unless a quorum be broken by absentees.

THE MEXICAN TREATY.

It is understood to-day that the Republicans will support the Mexican Treaty, if amended. Q.

From the Associated Press.

Washington, Wednesday, April 18.

The Commissioner of Patents has granted the application for the extension of the House Telegraph patent for seven years from to-day; also, for the Wells improvement in manufacturing hat bodies for a like period.

The steamer Roanoke will land the Japanese Embassy at the City of New-York, in accordance with the original order of the Secretary of the Navy. They would have been brought directly to Washington, as recommended by Consul-General Harris, but for the apprehended difficulty of piloting the vessel through the channel of the Potomac River.

The House Committee on Elections to-day passed a resolution that in the contested election case of Williamson and Sickles, the points raised and argued by Mr. Sickles in relation to the notice and specifications served by the contestant, be reserved for decision until the final hearing, without prejudice to the rights of Mr. Sickles, and that Mr. Williamson proceed to take testimony upon his notice at his peril.

The House Post-office Committee to-day agreed to a reduction of the charge on all letters delivered by local carriers, to one cent.

A large number of delegates and others left here to day for Charleston, including Hon. Fernando Wood and a number of the Hard Shell delegates from New-York.

The Republican Senators had a conference to-day to take into consideration the subject of the Nicaragua Treaty, which it will be recollected was rejected and the vote afterwards reconsidered. It is understood their object is to modify the objectionable clauses, so that the President cannot use the United States forces for the protection of the property and persons of Americans in that Republic without the consent or authorization of Congress. Some of them are desirous of applying a similar principle to the Mexican Treaty. Without the Republican votes these treaties cannot be ratified—therefore the Democrats are not disposed to press them without affording the Republicans full time to make their suggestions.

SENATE.

Washington, Wednesday, April 18.

Mr. Grimes, of Iowa, (Rep.,) presented petitions in favor of a uniform Banking law.

Mr. Sumner, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) presented bout a dozen petitions, numerously signed by citizens of different towns in Massachusetts, asking Congress to repeal the Fugitive Slave law, to abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia and the Territories, to prohibit the inter-State Slave-trade, and to admit no more Slave States. Acting upon precedent he moved to refer them to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Mason, of Virginia, (Dem.,) moved to lay them on the table.

Mr. Sumner called for the yeas and nays.

Mr. Wigfall, of Texas, (Dem.,) desired to give his reasons why he should vote in the affirmative, but Mr. Wade objected.

The motion to lay on the table was carried by yeas 25, nays 19—a strictly party vote.

On motion of Mr. Hale, of New-Hampshire, (Rep.,) the veto message of the President, sent in yesterday, was taken up, and its consideration fixed for next Tuesday.

Mr. Collamer, of Vermont, (Rep.,) presented a petition similar to that offered by Mr. Sumner, and moved its reference to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Mason moved to lay it on the table.

Motion carried.

Mr. Pugh, of Ohio, (Dem.,) reported a bill for the relief of Judge Cradlebaugh, of Utah, which was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Anthony, of Rhode Island, (Rep.,) offered a resolution calling on the President to furnish the Senate with the instructions given to Mr. McLane when Minister to China. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) called up his resolution instructing the Military Committee to inquire into the contracts for iron made by the War Department.

Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, (Dem.,) thought the resolution should be addressed to the War Department.

Mr. Wilson thought not. A similar resolution of inquiry was passed at a former session, but nineteen months had elapsed before a reply was received. He wanted different information than that which would come from the War Department. His resolution had created a sensation in certain quarters, and strong efforts had been made to change its direction, and he had been approached even by political friends to induce him to do so.

Mr. Davis knew nothing of that. If the records of the War Department concealed anything, then he would vote for the fullest investigation. The only motive he had in proposing the amendment was to save the expense in collecting voluminous testimony, which could be found in the records of the Department.

Mr. Wilson disclaimed any insinuation of improper motives on the part of the Senator from Mississippi, for he was the last man to whom he would attribute anything of that sort. It was notorious, however, that the administration of the War Department had laid itself open to the suspicion of being connected with jobbers, and therefore he desired a full investigation.

After some further conversational debate, the resolution was laid over.

Mr. Slidell, of Louisiana, (Dem.,) called up his resolution proposing an adjournment of the Senate every three days from Thursday next until the 1st of May.

Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois, (Rep.,) opposed this as the worst proposition yet submitted.

Various views were expressed by Senators, and the resolution was finally carried by yeas 26, nays 22.

Mr. Trumbull moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution for adjournment for thirty days was rejected. Carried.

The resolution was taken up. It provides for an adjournment from the 19th to the 30th of April. Rejected, by yeas, 21; nays, 22.

The Homestead bill was taken up.

Mr. Wade, of Ohio, (Rep.,) moved the House bill as a substitute.

The Chair ruled this out of order, as an amendment was pending.

Mr. Gwin's amendment, to legalize the occupancy of the mineral lands of California and Oregon by miners, was discussed.

Mr. Latham, of California, (Dem.,) said if he thought this amendment would jeopardize the bill, he would not insist on it; but it was more important to his constituents than the Homestead bill itself. One thing that retarded the progress of California was the insecurity of the titles of land. A difficulty had arisen whether the mineral lands belonged to the State or to the United States. He had understood that a proposition would be made to sell the mineral lands in limited quantities. This gave rise to endless trouble and hardship to miners. The only plan was the one embodied in his colleague's amendment.

Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, (Dem.,) had always opposed this thing of putting foreigners who had declared their intentions to become citizens on an equal footing with American citizens. This was one point in the bill, to which he was irreconcileably opposed. He was willing to grant to miners preëmption rights the same as to other persons, but he was not willing to extend it to those who merely declared their intention to become citizens. Such a person was not a citizen, and there was no guarantee to become one. When they become citizens, then treat them as such, not before.

Mr. Johnson, of Arkansas, (Dem.,) said the Committee did not incorporate the amendment of the Senator from California because it was partial legislation, and because Congress had excepted mineral lands from the operation of the general land system.

Mr. Pugh thought the usages in the mines of California better laws than any legislation of Congress.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, Wednesday, April 18.

The Deficiency bill was taken up.

Mr. Houston, of Alabama, (Dem.,) demanded the Yeas and Nays on its passage.

Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, (Rep.,) reminded gentlemen that if they inist on the Yeas and Nays on the passage of the Appropriation bills, they may be defeated.

Mr. Houston replied that his object was to defeat this bill, and he was willing to take the responsibility.

Mr. Sherman, in reply to a question by Mr. Curtis, said there was not a single item in the bill not recommended by the Administration, and that it was the smallest deficiency bill which has been reported for years.

Mr. Gooch, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) would vote for the bill, understanding it was to pay debts already contracted, but he hoped that hereafter the Administration would contract such debts as its friends could vote to pay.

Mr. Houston replied there was scarcely an item in the bill to pay debts contracted by the Administration. Congress itself incurred the obligation.

The bill passed, 79 against 63.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Military Academy bill as returned from the Senate with the amendment authorizing the calling into the field the mounted regiment of Texan volunteers.

Mr. Stanton, of Ohio, (Rep.,) said there are indications of Indian disturbances in Washington and California as there are now in Texas and New-Mexico. Therefore the subject of the protection of the frontiers is one the House ought to take into serious consideration; and some system should, if practicable, be adopted to afford adequate relief. The depredations are committed by marauding parties, and there is no such thing as an open public enemy; hence the character of the defence would partake of a police service. A settlement could no more be protected from occasional depredation than a city from occasional burglary. All that could be done, therefore, would be to pursue and punish the offenders. There are 2,600 Federal troops in Texas. This is sufficient as to the number. The infantry there are perfectly useless, and the proper mode of protection is to convert a portion of them into mounted troops. He referred to the history of the disturbances of the border to show that the Indians need protection as much as the whites, because the lawless white population is disposed to commit depredations on the neighboring Indians. The description of the regiment now proposed was not the proper kind of police required, unless we desired to exterminate the Indians.

Mr. Curtis, of Iowa, (Rep.,) said that this was not a question of dollars and cents, but life and death. He was in favor of additional mounted regulars. It would be a long time before the Infantry could be taught horsemanship. The Texas Rangers were essentially necessary to the protection of the frontiers, accustomed as they were to Indian warfare. Because a few white men have committed depredations, it was no reason why the people should not be protected. To restore peace, it was necessary to pursue and effectually chastise the Indians. He favored the amendment because its object was recommended by the Secretary of War.

Mr. Reagan, of Texas, (Dem.,) referred to official documents to show the utter inadequacy of the Federal troops on the frontier, and earnestly advocated the mounted regiment.

Mr. Olin, of New-York, (Rep.,) said the accounts from the Texas frontier were highly exaggerated for interested purposes. There were no hostilities except on the part of a few vagabonds, and it was now proposed to employ the men who commenced the disturbances, to hunt them down. Volunteers should not be employed to discharge the duty belonging to the regulars now in Texas.

Mr. Hamilton, of Texas, (Dem.,) defended the people of Texas from the charge of lawlessness, and showed the necessity of the adoption of the Senate's amendment.

The Committee rose without action thereon.

Mr. Bonham's resolution was read for information. It is, that when the House adjourn on Friday, it be to the 30th inst.

Mr. Washburn, of Maine, (Rep.,) and others on the Republican side, objected. Adjourned.

OUR CITY GOVERNMENT.

GOVERNORS OF THE ALMSHOUSE.

A MELANCHOLY GATHERING—THE BOARD PREPARES FOR DISSOLUTION.

The Board of Governors held a meeting yesterday afternoon, at the Rotunda, President Pinckney in the Chair; all the members present except Governor Gunther.

A committee of three, consisting of Governors Dugro, Smith and Oliver, was appointed to settle the unfinished business of the Department. On motion, the President was added to the Committee.

The bills incurred for purchase of articles passed on former requisitions were referred to the Committee on Supplies.

The Committee was instructed to prepare a report of expenditures since 1st January last, and also to attend to the transfer of all books, papers, &c., in possession of the Board, to the new Commission.

Resolutions, complimentary to the President and Secretary, were passed unanimously, as also to the able and gentlemanly clerk, Mr. Phillips.

The President then addressed the Board, regarding its official dissolution, and an adjournment, subject to the call of the President, was moved and carried.

COMMISSIONERS OF EMIGRATION.

LARGE NUMBER OF ALIENS ARRIVED.

No business was transacted by the Commissioners of Emigration yesterday. From the weekly report it appears that 2,418 aliens arived at this port during the last week, making a total for the year thus far of 11,140, against 8,248 to the same date last year. There are in the Ward's Island Institutions 755 inmates. The balance of the Commutation Fund on hand is $12,981 12.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

Verdicts against Railroad Companies.—The jury in the case of Lydia Riley against the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, tried in the City Court yesterday, rendered a verdict in favor of plaintiff for $2,250. The action was brought to recover damages for injuries received by plaintiff, while leaving one of defendants' cars called "extras," at Bedford on the 1st of March last. On the day in question Mrs. Riley was about stepping from the car, the body of which revolved on a pivot, when the driver commenced turning so suddenly that she, being an elderly person, fell heavily to the pavement, receiving severe and permanent injuries.... In the case of Electa Thompson against the Hudson River Railroad Company, tried in the Circuit Court Tuesday, the jury brought in a sealed verdict yesterday morning, awarding $8,000 damages.

Bodies Found.—The body of an unknown man was found in the water, near the foot of Fulton-street, yesterday. He was apparently a sailor, red hair and whiskers on the lower part of his face, and was dressed in a blue pilot-cloth overcoat, black cloth vest, light corduroy pants and black neck-tie. Another body is reported to have been found in Gravesend Bay, yesterday.

Plymouth Church.—The lowest bidders for the work on the proposed Plymouth Church are as follows: Carpenter's work, G. Riker, $44,650; mason's work, G. French, $52,500; stone-cutter's work, John Price, $42,259; roofing, White & Kenny, $4,800; iron work, Kent & Dougherty, $2,270. Total, $147,470.

Fires.—Mr. Van Brunt's oil cloth factory, on Prince-street, near Tillary, suffered $500 damage by fire, last night.... Goods, to the amount of $150, in the show-window of Belfour & Mullen's fancy store, were destroyed by catching fire from the gas burner.

The Courts.—City Court Calendar for this day, Nos. 46, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 59, 19, 27, 33, 34, 7, 8, 9, 6, 48, 2, 14, 20, 25. Circuit Court Calendar, Nos. 16, 19, 42, 69, 91, 94, 14, 1, 24, 15.

Amusements.

Mrs. Hoey's Benefit.—This accomplished and deservedly popular actress, announces her benefit at Wallack's Theatre for Saturday evening. Mrs. Hoey took her benefit morally at the Academy of Music yesterday, when she generously came forward at the eleventh hour, to rescue the Dramatic Fund Association, suddenly left in the vocative by the failure of another leading actress to fulfill her engagement. It is by precisely such indications of private worth and personal good feeling as this, that Mrs. Hoey has won for herself a more than artistic popularity with the classes that truly support the "legitimate drama" in New-York, and we are sure these classes will rejoice to hear that another opportunity will be given them on Saturday for proving the value they set upon their favorite.

The Operas.—Bellini's "Sonnambula" was played at the Academy of Music last night to an excellent house. The singers were in good voice, and interpreted the work to the satisfaction of the audience. On Friday "Norma" will be given, with a débutante—Mlle. Banti—as the heroine.

At the Winter Garden "Lucrezia Borgia" was played to a fine house. To-day there will be a Grand Matinee, when the entire opera of "Ernani" with Fabbri, Stigelli, Ardavani and Weinlich, and the last act of "La Sonnambula," with Mme. Gassier and Signers Errani and Gassier, will be performed.

NEW-JERSEY.

The Mysterious Murder—Reward offered for the Detection of the Murderer.

Nothing new has transpired since the inquest on Tuesday night which tends to throw further light upon the mysterious murder of the unknown woman. Information has been received which tends to the belief that Miss Kibley, the Boston girl who was supposed to be the victim, is living with a family in Brooklyn. Her trunks arrived on the Stonington boat on Wednesday morning. Nothing was found in them but wearing apparel and a likeness of a female. Coroner Morris was sent for by Acting Superintendent Carpenter to confer with him in the matter. At the meeting of the Jersey City Common Council on Tuesday night, Alderman Hardenbergh offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to offer a reward of $250 for the apprehension and delivery of the party or parties guilty of the murder of the female found in the waters of the Hudson River near the Cunard Dock.

A New City Hall.—At the meeting of the Jersey City Common Council on Tuesday night, plans for a temporary City Hall, prepared by Stephen Quaife, were adopted. The Committee, however, were empowered to make such alterations as they deem requisite, so as to reduce the cost to $20,000. The Hall is to be 59 feet front, 90 feet deep, and three stories high, and to be located on Montgomery-street, corner of Washington-place.

Illinois Directory.—Mr. J. C. W. Bailey, of Chicago, is here, obtaining subscriptions and advertisements for the Directory of the State of Illinois which he is about to publish. The work is evidently one of importance. Mr. Bailey's letters of commendation are abundant and satisfactory.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
The breaking up of the cold weather and the presence of Spring excite the bile and inertia of our citizens, causing a feeling of lassitude and heaviness, aching and dizziness of the head, and what is commonly known as SPRING FEVER. and why? Because the sudden change of weather calls all the impurities and secretions of the system into action, and the results are the ills complained of; but there is a sure and certain remedy "THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE," and if the BLOOD be free from all impurities and putrid humors, there will be no disease.
Dr. S. P. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA,
as manufactured under the direction of the celebrated chemist and physician, Dr. JAMES R. CHILTON, is the only effective and permanent RENOVATOR AND PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD,
as it contains all the vegetable substances which experience has tested and proved useful in ERADICATING DISEASE FROM THE SYSTEM.
A few bottles will most effectually regulate and cleanse the system, and KEEP THE BLOOD PURE.

STRENGTHEN THE SYSTEM.—VIGOR IS one of the cardinal elements of health. Sickness is the consequence of its decline, death of its utter paralyzation. The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages, in HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. Many who reflect upon the temerity with which they have trifled with health in youth and maturity, fancy that they have gone too far to be restored. This is a delusion. Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthful invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific. It can be had of any druggist.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND PHENIX BITTERS.—In cases of costiveness, bilious and liver affections, dyspepsia, piles, rheumatism, fevers and agues, obstinate headaches and nervous debility, these medicines have invariably proved a certain and speedy remedy. A single trial will place the Life Pills and Phenix Bitters beyond the reach of competition, in the estimation of every patient. For sale by Dr. WM. B. MOFFAT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, and by all druggists.

DR. McCLINTOCK'S COLD AND COUGH MIXTURE is guaranteed to cure an ordinary cold or cough, catarrh, influenza, sore throat, &c., with absolute certainty, and a degree of rapidity that will agreeably astonish the patient. The barns, out-houses and fences are in good repair. The land adjoins the village, and there are three two-story dwelling-houses and a store on the farm, all pleasantly situated in the village. A magnificent grove of evergreens surrounds the farm-house. A good cash business is done in the store, and the post-office is kept there. The village contains a large brick flouring mill, large tannery and two stores. One mile east is a village of 1,500 inhabitants. There are 8 cows, 2 horses and all the farming utensils, which will be sold with the above or separately. The roads are excellent; it is a healthy country, and decidedly the most desirable farm in that vicinity. Whether as a Summer residence or for agricultural purposes, such a farm is rarely offered. HALIFAX HOTEL TO LET, AND POSSESSION GIVEN MAY 1.—This large and well-situated Hotel, built with all modern conveniences, in the centre of the city, expressly to meet the rapidly-growing wants of the traveling public, but lately occupied by the Government as officers' quarters, will be vacant after the first day of May; and offers to hotel-keepers or others desirous of engaging in that business, an opportunity seldom met with.

The completion of the railroad to Windsor and Truro, the connection established from the former place with St. John, New-Brunswick, Portland, Boston, and Canada, by the Grand Trunk Railway, and from the latter with Pictou, the various ports in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Prince Edward's Island, and Quebec, together with the arrival at, and departure from Halifax direct of the European, American, West Indian, and Newfoundland Mail steamers, and the long admitted want of hotel accommodation in this city, render this enterprise well worthy of consideration. Application may be made to either of the subscribers, at Halifax, and any further information required by persons in the United States will be given by Messrs. WHITMAN BROS. & CO., No. 72 Beaver-st., New-York.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Nomination of Delegates to Chicago.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC AND HARMONIOUS SESSION

SYRACUSE, Wednesday, April 18.

The Republican State Convention met at Corinthian Hall at 11 o'clock this morning. The attendance was large, and embraced very many of the leading Republicans of the State.

JAMES KELLY, of New-York, called the Convention to order, and on his motion Hon. RICHARD HURLBERT, of Oneida, was made temporary Chairman, and LUCIEN BIRDSEYE, of Kings, DANIEL E. GAVIT, of New-York, THOS. C. PLATT, of Tioga, HIRAM W. HASKELL, of Genesee, Secretaries. Mr. HURLBERT, in taking the Chair, returned his thanks to the Convention. His allusions to WM. H. SEWARD and JOHN C. FREMONT were enthusiastically received.

The list of delegates was called.

On motion, the Chair appointed the following a Committee on permanent organization:

First District, James Kelly, George Opdyke; Second District, Charles Janes, Alfred Past; Third District, H. J. King, John M. Parker; Fourth District, P. C. Hitchcock, W. A. Dart; Fifth District, John P. Wooster, Sanford Coe; Sixth District, Lucius Robinson, James W. Glover; Seventh District, Christopher Morgan, M. H. Lawrence; Eighth District, A. G. Conger, A. G. Price.

The Convention took a recess till 2 P. M.

ELIAS W. LEAVENWORTH, of Onondaga, will be President of the permanent organization.

On reassembling, Mr. MORGAN, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported the following officers:

President—Hon. ELIAS W. LEAVENWORTH, of Onondaga.

Vice-Presidents—First District—George Oydyke, Edgar Ketcham, Henry Smith. Second—E. S. Shanard, Peter Townsend, Lucius C. Andrews. Third—William Benton, John M. Parker, William Masten. Fourth—James M. Harton, S. Belding, A. C. Brown. Fifth—A. G. Thompson, Peter M. Warren. Sixth—Levi Dimmick, J. R. Alladin, Joseph R. Dixon. Seventy—John Adams, N. J. Milliken, T. R. Strong. Eighth—Joseph H. Darling, L. D. Cobb, Jacob Buyer.

Secretaries—First District, Andrew Williamson; Second, Lucien Birdseye; Third, J. J. Van Allen; Fourth, Samuel Ames; Fifth, B. N. Hodges; Sixth, Thomas C. Platt; Seventh, N. T. Stevens; Eighth, Jno. T. Lurish.

Mr. LEAVENWORTH, on taking the Chair, said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION—You will please to accept my profound aaknowledgments for the honor which you have done me in calling upon me to preside over the deliberations of this numerous and most respectable Convention. I cannot but feel deeply this renewed manifestation of the kindness and confidence of the Republicans of the State of New-York; but unfamiliar as I am with the discharge of the duties of a presiding officer of deliberative bodies, permit me in advance to bespeak your most indulgent support. We are convened here from the various counties and districts of this great State to take the first step in opening the campaign of 1860—a campaign fraught with consequences of the most momentous import to the cause of Freedom and the welfare of the Republic. We should not for one moment forget that the organization which we represent is the only barrier which interposes the slightest obstacle to the spread of the dark and debilitating curse of Slavery over all the Territories of the glorious Union. It is not too much to say that but for the successive victories which we, the Republicans of the State of New-York have achieved in the years that are passed, the black and piratical flag of Slavery would now wave in triumph over the beautiful plains of Kansas and Nebraska; but they have thus far been saved by our efforts and our sacrifices, and our successes in common with those of our friends throughout the Union. Other Territories in embryo still lie beyond. [Great applause.] We alone are struggling to preserve this priceless inheritance, not only for the white labor of the North and the South, but for the poor and the oppressed of every kindred and clime. This consummation is to be attained only through the instrumentality of the labor and efforts of the great and good men of our country. We have come together here to-day that with such prudence and wisdom as we can command, we may elect men who shall represent the Republicans of this State at the great national gathering at Chicago, and nothing will more conduce to the success of our labors than the fact that the Republican Party is composed of the most homogeneous materials. and contains within itself no element which can interfere to disturb the harmony of our deliberations. I know that I do not mistake the sentiment of the Convention when I say that we are all moved by one common sentiment and feeling, I cannot doubt that it is the evident and unanimous sentiment and desire of the gentlemen who are here assembled before me, that he who has been our champion in so many hard-fought battles—he who has so long and so ably, and so fearlessly and so wisely represented our interests and our principles in that august tribunal, the Senate of the Union, should be selected as the exponent of our opinions, as the common standard-bearer of the united Republican hosts. [Applause.] We, who for thirty years pas,, have been familiar with his calm prudence, his wisdom, his ability, his fidelity, and his patriotic devotion to duty, cannot hesitate in our choice, nor relax in our efforts for its accomplishment. That we may successfully accomplish the work which has assembled us on this occasion, and forward the great object which we have individually so much at heart, let us proceed, gentlemen, at once, with calmness and prudence and wisdom, to the discharge of our important duties; and, laying aside all personal and local considerations, let us march directly forward to the accomplishment of the great and paramount object which we severally so much admire. [Hearty applause.]

A Committee of one was then appointed from each Congressional District to select four delegates at large.

It was resolved that the delegates from each Congressional District select two delegates and two alternates for their respective Districts to the National Convention a Committee of eight, one from each Judicial District, was appointed to report resolutions, as follows: 1st District, John G. Floyd; 2d, George Opdyke; 3d, Augustus Tolle; 4th, A. D. Palmer; 5th, Richard Hurlbut; 6th, Lucius Robinson; 7th, Theron R. Story, Chairman; 8th, H. A. Prendergast.

A recess of an hour was taken to enable the Committee on Delegates at large to make up the report.

The delegations from the Congressional Districts, excepting in the Eighteenth, Twelfth and Twenty-seventh Districts, reported their selections for Delegates and Alternates.

Mr. STRONG, from the Committee on Resolutions, made the following report:

Resolved, That the Republican Electors of the State of New-York, represented in this Convention, present the name of WILLIAM H. SEWARD—[uproarious applause, lasting for some minutes]—to the Chicago Convention for the office of President, not only in obedience to a universal and unbroken public sentiment, but because they regard him as eminently the representative of the principles upon which the Republican Party is based, and to whose hands all the great interests of the nation may be safely committed. [Applause and cheers for SEWARD.]

This report was adopted, and subsequently the resolution was carried, by a unanimous vote, and amidst applause and cheers.

Hon. T. M. POMEROY and H. C. GOODWIN addressed the Convention.

The Committee of Thirty-three reported for delegates at large William M. Evarts, Preston King, John L. Schoolcraft and Henry R. Selden; and alternates, Isaiah Herman, A. B. Dickinson, Martin J. Townsend and Jacob Beyer; also, delegates for the Eighth, Twelfth and Twenty-seventh Congressional Districts.

An exciting scene now ensued over the delegates for the Eighth Congressional District of New-York City.

The Committee reported in favor of WM. CURTIS NOYES and JAMES W. NYE.

Mr. SHERMAN, of Kings, took the floor, and severely condemned the action of the Committee in selecting Gen. NYE in preference to DAVID DUDLEY FIELD. He said that the delegates from the district were divided between three men evenly, five to five, and that the Committee, by a close vote, had unwisely taken NYE and rejected FIELD. He charged that NYE was supported by mere politicians, while FIELD was urged by men who were Republicans from principle, and who were not office-seekers. He moved that the report be amended by substituting the name of DAVID DUDLEY FIELD in place of that of Gen. NYE.

Mr. JOHNSON, of New-York, defended the action of the Committee. He said in the course of his remarks that he knew Mr. FIELD not to be a Seward man, and that if he was sent to Chicago he would merely give a complimentary vote to Mr. SEWARD and then, as he expressed it, drop him like a hot potato. He said that he knew that Mr. FIELD was a Chase man.

The debate was continued by Messrs. SHERMAN, A. B. DICKINSON, NORTHROP of New-York, CHRISTOPHER MORGAN and others. The amendment to strike NYE's name out and put FIELD's in its place was negatived by a decided vote, and the report of the Committee was adopted unanimously.

A resolution empowering the delegation to fill any vacancies that might occur, was adopted.

A series of resolutions, passed by a Convention in Dutchess County, in opposition to the selection of Delegates to National Conventions by State Conventions, and in favor of selecting them in the respective Congressional Districts, was presented.

A vote of thanks to the President was passed, and Mr. LEAVENWORTH responded, when the Convention adjourned with hearty cheers.

Resolved, That the action of the Conservative Union men of the State of New-York as to the nomination and support of a distinct electoral ticket, shall be finally determined in a State Convention, at such time and place as the State Executive Committee shall appoint.

A great mass union is in progress here to-night, and the greatest enthusiasm is manifested.

The New-York and Brooklyn delegates to the Syracuse Convention, on board the Francis Skiddy, last night, were addressed by Rev. Dr. COX in an urgent speech. His creed was the Bible, the Constitution, WASHINGTON's Farewell Address and Pluribus Unum. He said he had twenty grandchildren, and by the judgment day he might have a million, whose happiness would depend upon the perpetuity of the Union. The destruction of the Union would no more benefit the master or the slave than the falling of the firmament would benefit the plantation. He hoped the Union Party would succeed, and go through the country like the voice of the thunder and the speed of the lightning. Ex-Mayor SLOCUM and Messrs. DUERS, OGDEN, BROWN, HALSEY, BODINE and ROBERTS spoke. Gen. TALLMADGE also spoke. A large number of delegates are in town.

NEW-YORK CONFERENCE.

CLOSE OF THE SESSION—CHOICE OF ADDITIONAL DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE—CLOSING CHARGE OF THE BISHOP—APPOINTMENTS.

The Conference was opened at the usual hour yesterday morning with singing, reading the scriptures and prayer by Rev. B. F. ADAMS. Further ballots for the election of delegates to the General Conference resulted in the choice of Rev. PAUL R. BROWN and Rev. J. B. BEACH, (Progressive.) An election for two alternates resulted in the choice of Rev. L. M. VINCENT and Rev. L. H. KING.

| CONSERVATIVE. | PROGRESSIVE. |
|---|---|
| Rev. B. Griffin, | Rev. D. W. Clarke, D.D., |
| Rev. A. M. Osbon, D.D., | Rev. M. D'C. Crawford, |
| Rev. J. McClintoch, D.D., | W. H. Ferris, |
| Rev. J. Holdich, D.D. | Paul R. Brown, |
| | J. B. Beach. |
| ALTERNATE. | ALTERNATE. |
| Rev. L. M. Vincent. | L. H. King. |

The following young men were admitted to the traveling connection on trial: George Clarke, J. G. Shrive, E. B. Otherman, Sanford J. Ferguson, John W. Ackerly, Henry Jackson, (of Canada, elected deacon,) Eli M. Lockwood, David More Howell.

The Secretary presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Conference fully appreciate the calm, kind and dignified manner in which our Superintendent, Rev. Bishop SCOTT, has performed his official duties, and that we shall remember him in our prayers, and offer him our never-ending Christian love.

The Secretary, addressing the Bishop, said that he was very happy to inform him that the resolution had passed unanimously.

The Bishop said that he felt very grateful indeed to the brethren for their delicate and generous kindness, and he assured them that he should cherish the memory thereof to the close of his mortal career.

The Secretary then said I have another resolution to present which relates to myself. He would read it loud enough for his brethren to hear, although he might shed a tear or two in reading it. He then, in voice choked with tears, read the following:

Whereas, Rev. B. Griffin will have completed his half century of official service at the next session of the New-York Conference, therefore

Resolved, That we respectfully request the Bro. B. Griffin to preach a Semi-Centennial Sermon some time during that session, before this body.

Unanimously adopted.

The Bishop hoped that the dear brother would be preserved to do as his brethren had asked, ["Amen,"] and that his health and vigor would be preserved for that purpose. ["Amen, amen."]

The reverend gentleman then, in a voice of deep emotion, thanked his brethren for their kindness. He said he was afraid he would hardly be able to do as they asked. He was now the oldest member of the Conference except Brother RICE.

THE BISHOP—The oldest member, or the oldest effective member?

Rev. MR. GRIFFIN—The oldest effective member, and yet he classed himself among the junior members. He still looked upon himself as a young man, but the record told a different tale. He need say no more. The reverend gentleman then sat down deeply affected.

Rev. J. B. WAKELEY asked permission to make a personal explanation. At the time of the death of WM. POOLE, the sister of that man asked him to remain from the Conference to which he was about to go. He did attend the funeral, and merely stood there; but the High Church people pitched into him like a thousand of brick. [Laughter.] He was, the other day, mentioned by the reporter of a certain paper as the eulogist of BILL POOLE. This he pronounced a foul slander, and he trusted the reporters would take it down.

All his life he had preached against sin and the devil in every form, and in Bleecker Building he stood up in the presence of THOMAS HYER and other sporting gentlemen and denounced prize fighting. He thought that the reporter did not intend to injure him, but he believed it was whispered in his ear by a cowardly fellow who wrote an anonymous letter to the Churchman concerning him. If he was guilty they might hang him with an ecclesiastical rope until he was dead, and let no one say God have mercy on his soul. But let there be none of these miserable stabs. (Amen.) Away with these slurs on Christian ministers! (A-men,) who for more than a quarter of a century preached against him. (Amen, amen.) POOLE's aunt had assured him of her nephew's repentance, and he attended his funeral; and he avowed his determination to attend all funerals, even those of rumsellers, for it was the duty of the ministry to attend the funeral of all sinners. (Amen.)

A MEMBER—Is the person alluded to a member of the Conference.

Rev. Mr. WAKELEY—No, he is a brother reporter, who while a member of my church and partaking of the hospitalities of my family, stabbed me in the dark in this cowardly manner.

The Secretary presented the following statement regarding the statistics of the New-York Annual Conference, for the year ending April, 1860, viz: Members, 32,767; deaths past year, 380; probationers, 5,461; local preachers, 200; adults baptized, 1,738; children baptized, 1,601; number of churches, 339; probable value, $1,269 830; number of parsonages, 99; probable value, $224,750; collected for Conference claimants, $5,011 18; collected for Missions, $22,650 35; collected for Tract Society, $2,480 10; collected for Bible Society, $4,723 27; collected for Sunday School Union, $1,180 58; number of Sunday Schools 453; number of officers and teachers, 5,622; number of Sunday School scholars, 27,588; number of volumes in library, 76,195.

Resolutions of thanks to the Trustees of the Church for the use thereof, and to those who entertained the members at their houses, were passed unanimously.

The Rev. Dr. STRICKLAND presented a report and resolutions to the effect that the Conference had the fullest confidence in the African Civilization Society, and would encourage the labor of its agent, Rev. VALENTINE BUCK, within the bounds of the Conference. Adopted.

Rev. JOSEPH B. WAKELEY again spoke on the subject of a report in the TIMES of Monday. He would not do injustice to any person. He had said that the slander was whispered into the ears of the other reporter, and being born in the land of steady habits, he was good at guessing, for such was the fact. The reporter in question stated that the reporter of the TIMES asked him, when he (Mr. W.) made his speech on Saturday, "Is that fellow the chap who made the oration at BILL POOLE's funeral?" and the reporter in question answered "Yes," without having the remotest idea that Mr. WAKELEY's name would be mentioned. He made this statement in justice to the reporter whom he had assailed in the morning, because that gentleman had a reputation to sustain as well as the ministers had.

The President exhibited a watch belonging to the deceased Bishop ASBURY, who was the first Bishop of the M. E. Church. They would perceive that it had ceased to mark the time. There were no hands to mark the moments, minutes, or hours. He died in Virginia in 1816, and gave the watch to his traveling companion, Rev. JOHN W. BOND, who at his death left the article to his nephew and namesake, Rev. JOHN WESLEY BOND WOOD. The exhibition of the relic excited considerable interest.

The Bishop said that he desired Rev. WM. P. CORBIT, who was about to go to another field of labor, to make the closing prayer.

The Committee on the trial of Rev. Mr. WALLSWORTH, reported that the first charge (unchristian and unministerial conduct) was not sustained, and a few of the specifications of the second (mal-administration) only, were sustained. The Committee recommended that the brother be admonished by the President, but in view of the concessions and explanations made, they also recommended that his character pass. Agreed to.

The Bishop then congratulated the Conference on the peaceful and harmonious session they had had. Matters of great moment were brought before them, and they were discussed earnestly and extendedly, but in the spirit of brotherly love which he blessed God had prevailed. He said that he had done the best he could in regard to the appointments, others might have done them better. The Districts would remain as heretofore.

He then read out the appointments in the several Districts. The following are those for New-York:

THE PRESBYTERY OF NEW-YORK.

THE BOARDS OF THE CHURCH—MISSIONARY CHURCHES—DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY—AN ADDITION TO THE PRESBYTERY PROPOSED.

The session of the Presbytery of New-York was continued yesterday at Dr. POTTS' Church. The first business transacted was with reference to proposed changes affecting the Boards of the Church. With regard to the proposition that the present system on which the Boards of the Church are constructed shall be modified so as to consolidate the existing Boards and the working Committee—making one body instead of two—the Presbytery adopted the following:

Resolved, The Presbytery of New-York hereby expresses its approbation of the system on which the Boards of the Church are constructed, and especially its dissent from any proposition that may be made to reduce them to mere Executive Committees.

There are five or six Boards, three or four of which are located at Philadelphia. Many think it would be better to distribute them to Baltimore, Cincinnati, &c. On this subject the Presbytery adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, The Presbytery sees no good reason for agitating the question for removing the seat of the Board of the Domestic Missions from Philadelphia.

The committee then proceeded to elect delegates to the General Assembly, Messrs. GUBBY and TAYLOR acting as tellers. Drs. KREBS and SPRING were elected clerical representatives, with Drs. BANNARD and MR. ALEXANDER as alternates. Messrs. LOWRIE and WALKER were chosen lay delegates, and Messrs. BELKNAP and ALLEN alternates.

The report of the committee on Mission Churches was then presented, and the various recommendations were considered seriatim. The sum of $500 was appropriated for the pastor of the German church in Madison-street. The committee recommended an appropriation by the Presbytery to increase the salary of Rev. Mr. WILSON, pastor of the colored church in Seventh-avenue, from $500 to $600 per annum. In this connection the report of the special committee on that church was read, recommending that the colored church be rented as heretofore, and that the location be changed, with a view to obtaining better attendance. The report was adopted.

After a long discussion on a recommendation of the same Committee with regard to the Twenty-eighth-street Church, the Presbytery decided that a Committee should be appointed to raise, on behalf of the Presbytery, $4,000 to purchase the mortgage on the church.

Dr. HOGE, from the Committee appointed to report a narrative of the general result of the verbal statements made on the previous day, read an interesting narrative, noticing particularly the German Church in Madison-street, the Mariner's Church, and the Nineteenth-street Church. The document was ordered printed.

The Presbytery decided to pay the actual necessary expenses of delegates to the General Assembly, Dr. McCARTY suggesting that the bills should not include champagne and cigars.

Rev. SAMUEL ALEXANDER presented the petition of the North-West Presbyterian Church in Fiftieth-street, (New School,) to be admitted under the care of the Presbytery. After some discussion, the whole subject was referred to a Committee of five, to report to the Presbytery. Dr. Phillips, Dr. Hoge, Rev. Samuel Alexander, Mr. Moses Allen and W. Staples, were appointed such Committee, and after some routine business the Board adjourned to a week from next Thursday.

PRESBYTERY OF NASSAU, O. S.

ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

At the session of this Presbytery yesterday, which has been in Session in the Central Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, the following delegates to the General Assembly were selected: Delegates—Rev. Mr. Oakley, Rev. Mr. Locke. Alternates—Rev. Mr. Knox, Rev. Mr. Wells. Elders—Messrs. Wallace, Cruikshank, Eli Beard, and G. W. Elleman.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

OUR DELEGATION TO CHARLESTON.

Departure of the Nashville—Who was on Board, and a Hint at what they Suffered.

A large number of the New-York (Wood) delegates to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston left yesterday in the steamer Nashville, of SPOFFORD & TILESTON's line. There were also in company with them a number of gentlemen, and some ladies, who go to witness the proceedings, and to take a more or less active part in them. There was a large gathering of the political friends of the delegates to see them off. All the staterooms were taken up before the day of sailing, and quite a number of the passengers were obliged to put up with a standee. For other creature comforts, however, they appeared to be well provided in the shape of "small stores," any quantity of baskets and mysterious packages being sent on board up to the moment of departure. No demonstrations were made by the crowd upon the pier, except the rather questionable compliment of a shower of small and stale oranges which flew thick and fast between the steamer and the spectators, while she was backing out of the slip, by which several coats were bespattered and rendered the worse for wear.

FROM NEW-YORK.

Wm. N. McIntyre, C. W. Campbell, Wm. Miner, Isaac V. Fowler, K. S. Chaffer, R. Noble, R. W. Allen, Dr. Ingham, Charles Jacobus, A. Loomis, John S. Dudley, Jge. Capers, D. Col., E. Cooper, & fri'nd, D. E. Wager, J. W. Clackner, P. G. Maloney, Frank Spinola, S. Dougherty, G. Beach, F. W. Hoffman, Dr. Skinner, Dr. Bissell, W. H. Walrath, J. J. Brdley (Ex-A.) R. W. Allen, S. V. Butterworth, & friend. A. Belmont & ser't, M. Tuomey, N. H. Fowler, W. W. Wright, J. Howard, Jr., M. Beach, F. B. O'Keefe, Judge Robinson, B. Howe, F. Clarke, M. C. Helderly, J. J. Peck & friend,

FROM ALBANY.

S. G. Courtney, And. Nephew, Dan. S. Dickinson, S. S. Wright, O. McFarlin, Dean Richmond, C. Cassidy.

Of the state of these political pilgrims, even after they were fairly upon the high seas, we are fortunate in being able, through the kindness of the Pilot, to give a hasty, but satisfactory glimpse in the following:

From Our Own Correspondent.

STEAMSHIP NASHVILLE, OFF THE HOOK, }
Wednesday, April 18, 1860. }

If the pilot is as good as his word, and I don't doubt he will be, you will get this paragraph in time for the morning's edition. Excuse any defects, for I don't feel easy. Whether its bile or what not, I can't say, but I think its bile and probably in a few minutes I shall be able to say definitely.

What a jolly crowd we are to be sure. Generals, Postmasters, Bankers, Courtiers (male and female,) reporters and gentlemen. Oh! there are two or three Aldermen besides. To particularize: there is one portly Postmaster, FOWLER by name, though not so by nature, I am not sure, but I think he'll be sea-sick in about ten minutes, (I know its bile.) He is just now talking wit G. B. LAMAR, and they laugh in so melancholy a manner that I think they must be troubled with bile, as well as "poor me." Mr. COURTENAY, a near relative of Hon. Mr. DICKINSON, (you see I mean to be very polite, because there's no telling who's President till after election.) Mr. BELMONT, the great banker, and Mr. FROMENT (not Fremont nor forment, now you type-setters,) and EDWARD COOPER, looking dreadfully pale, are just going down the stairs (stairs isn't the nautical term, but I'm not writing for "experts,") and though its none of my business as to where they are going, I'll bet a bowl of gruel they're going to turn in (and, perhaps, before they know it, they'll out in a turreen.) 'Pon my soul, I can't write any more. I guess the pilot's in a hurry; if he isn't the ship is and it keeps up such a see-sawing that I must beg off.

The reporter of the Herald, who is buttonholeing "honorable gentlemen," and who looks as smart as a steel-trap—is welcome to all the news, "exclusive" and all. What do I care for news? All around me I see placers of news, but I won't dig, except for my berth, (and speaking of births, why was I ever borned?) Mr. S. F. BUTTERWORTH now doesn't look as if he'd ever be sick, and I hope he won't. The rest of them, Messrs. RICHMOND, CASSIDY, SPINOLA, DOHERTY, Sheriff BENSEL, Govs. TUOMEY and MALONE are walking trotting, chatting, minching apples and talking politics, but I hate 'em all—I am going to bed instantaneously, and from this hour until we reach Charleston, I bid farewell to you and all thoughts of you. Your sea-sick! HOWARD.

BOOK SALE BY BANGS, MERWIN & CO., AT THE IRVING BUILDINGS.—Messrs. BANGS, MERWIN & CO., commenced their first book sale in their new quarters in the Irving Buildings on Tuesday. On mounting the rostrum Mr. MERWIN, in response to numerous calls for a speech, welcomed the friends, old and new, whom he saw before him, to the rooms to which he and his associates had removed. At their old stand they had labored faithfully, and he trusted in a way which had resulted in good. He hoped that a little of the charm which lingered around the fields and shores of Sunnyside might be transferred to the spot which had been named after one of the noblest men whose life belongs to our own or to any other literature. Mr. MERWIN, in concluding, called attention to the catalogue of rare works which was presented, and then the sale proceeded. The books sold last evening comprised many curious works relative to the history of America and its early settlement. On Friday evening the department of Free Masonry, which is quite extensive, will be disposed of. Mr. NORTON, agent for Libraries, whose rooms are in the Irving Building, has, we observe, secured a copy of BALL HUGHES' admirable bust of IRVING as an ornament for his apartments.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BATTLE OF CERRO GORDO.—Citizens were surprised, yesterday, at seeing the flags floating from the City Hall, and at first each one assumed that it was in honor of the adjournment of the Legislature. It appeared, however, that the Legislature were not the recipients of this token of respect, the flags having been displayed in commemoration of the Battle of "Cerro Gordo," of which yesterday was the anniversary. The "Scott Life Guards," who were participants in that memorable engagement, turned out in full force, and, after paying the honors of a salute to the venerable and honored Commander-in-Chief, Gen. SCOTT, marched to the Park, where they passed in review before the acting Mayor, Alderman PECK. After the review the corps was dismissed. In the evening it visited one or two theatres, to which it had been invited.

LECTURE OF MR. JOHN WISE ON THE PROPOSED AERIAL VOYAGE TO EUROPE.—Mr. JOHN WISE delivered his promised lecture in the Palace Garden Hall on Tuesday evening, before an attentive audience. He described the air-currents which are engendered at the equator in an opposite direction to the revolutions of the globe on its axis, and which go northeastwardly in our latitude towards the North Pole, forming a circuit there, returning to the equator. The observations he has made during more than three hundred voyages in balloons during twenty-four years, as well as those of other æronauts, along with the learned experiments of Lieut. MAURY on the subject of "Air-Currents," were elaborately discoursed by the speaker. Mr. WISE insisted accordingly, that by means of this eastwardly wind it would be easy to reach Europe—North, Middle, or Southern—in a balloon of extra large dimensions and appliances, the voyage occupying a few hours—certainly not more than sixty, probably less. He also argued at length on the safety of the voyage. Mr. WISE was frequently applauded during the delivery of his lecture.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE BURCHARD CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.—The first anniversary of this Association, connected with the Thirteenth-street Presbyterian Church, was celebrated last evening. The exercises consisted of addresses by Rev. JOHN DOWLING, D. D., and Rev. ASA D. SMITH, D. D., and the reading of the Secretary's (Mr. THADDEUS V. TABOR's) report. On April 2, 1859, the first meeting was held. The Association then numbered 32 members, and it now has 84 active members and 17 honorary. Rev. S. D. BURCHARD, D. D., did not deliver his address, owing to the lateness of the hour when the other speakers had finished.

THE ADAMS EXPRESS ROBBERY.—The scoundrels who perpetrated the recent robbery on the Adams Express Company, made an unlucky choice as far as they were concerned in ejecting the safe containing $16,000 from the car, for right by its side was another safe in which was deposited $139,000. They might have had one just as well as the other, and the Company is thankful that they showed such regard for its interests in making their choice. The messengers sent out to examine the track returned yesterday, and report that they can find no signs to indicate where the safe was thrown from the cars. There is but little probability that the robbers will ever be detected.

YOUNG MEN'S REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.—This Association, last evening, after debate, rejected the resolution of sympathy with Rev. DANIEL WORTH now imprisoned in North Carolina or selling "Helper's Crisis." A resolution was adopted providing for the printing and circulating of campaign documents, including Messrs. SEWARD and LOVEJOY's recent speeches. A series of resolutions was adopted condemning the action of the Legislature in passing the City Railroad and West Washington Market bills, and approving the course of the Governor in vetoing the same.

Mr. LOUIS FITZGERALD TASSISTRO repeats, this evening, at Hope Chapel, his extraordinary performance of repeating from memory, with requisite variations of voice and manner, one of SHAKESPEARE's entire plays. It is among the most remarkable exhibitions of memory, as well as of his-rionic talent, ever given in this City.

Fires.

IN A PIANO-FORTE MANUFACTORY.

Mr. WM. HENRY HANSON, proprietor of the piano-forte manufactory, No. 100 Centre-street, suffered a loss of $12,000 by a fire which broke out in his establishment yesterday morning at 3 o'clock. He is insured for $3,000 in the Rutger's and St. Mark's Companies. Mr. GEO. W. WOLFE, proprietor of the building, lost $3,000; insured. JACOB KOEHLER, keeper of a lager bier saloon, $150, and JACOB REITS $250; both uninsured.

IN TREADWELL'S BAKERY.

The stock in TREADWELL's bakery, which was destroyed on Tuesday night, was insured as follows: Merchants' $5,000; Ætna, of Hartford, $5,000; St. Nicholas $3,000. This is one-fourth its value. There were policies on the building for $4,000 in the National, and $4,000 in the Equitable Companies.

Police Reports.

A RNFFIANLY VISITOR.

Joseph Woodruff, a young man who is well known in the Fifth Ward as a fireman, and whose brother is now a member of the State Legislature, called about 19½ o'clock last evening at the house No. 101 Mercer-street. and suddenly, as is alleged, without any provocation, attempted to kill Josephine Wilson, a young woman with whom he had been conversing. He succeeded in severing nearly all the arteries in her left hand with a large pocket knife, and also cut her badly in the face. Officer Palmer, of the Eighth Precinct arrested him in Broadway, as he was endeavoring to escape, and he was detained at the Station-house for the night. Jealousy is said to have incited the act. The woman's wounds were sewed up by Dr. Kemp, who pronounces the one in the hand to be of a very serious character.

ROBBERY IN BROADWAY.

At 11 o'clock last night Dennis Fagan, a waiter in the Lafarge Hotel, was passing along Broadway, near Spring-street, when a ruffian sprang upon him, and tore his breast-pin from his shirt bosom. The fellow started off with his booty, but a policeman, who had heard Fagan's cry of "watch," caught the fugitive. He gave his name as George Armstrong, and was recognized as an old offender. To-day he will be required to answer a complaint for highway robbery.

ALSO FOR GENERAL DEBILITY.

WOLFE's SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession in the above complaints, and is the only Gin in this country which has the indorsement of the medical faculty. Put up in quart and pint bottles, and sold by all druggists, grocers, fruit stores and country merchants. Look out for counterfeits and imitations; the whole country is flooded with them.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself has said, I want a hat to cover my head, and I'll go strait to KNOX's for it. We should judge not, from the rush to the hatter's establishment, No. 212 Broadway.
